On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I believe it would be very good policy for somebody on the other side of the House or the sponsor of this bill to explain just what this bill does before you call the roll.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, the sponsor of the bill Mr. Waterhouse, I understand, is ill.

Very briefly I would like to say that House Bill 855, Printer's No. 664, does this; it eliminates the mandatory placing of the seal of the Commonwealth on each bottle of wine. In lieu thereof only the seal of the Commonwealth needs to be placed on the package and not on the individual bottle.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT, Mr. Speaker, House Bill 959 is not part of a package. This bill is not part of the package, and I understand from very good authority that they intend to amend this bill in the Senate. If that is true, I think the House of Representatives should not allow that to be done. We should not pass bills to the Senate with the understanding of amendments.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. LOVETT, Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Liquor Control for further study and possible amendment.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared tde "nays" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, less than a majority having voted in the affirmative the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, this bill that we are about to vote upon, in my mind, in the first place, is un-American. It establishes a quota law for the distributors in Pennsylvania. Quota laws of themselves are un-American.

We found after passing the liquor laws back in the 1933 session that the Legislature itself,—and I defy anyone to deny that the intent of the Legislature at that time was that clubs did not come under the quota law. By maneuver they eventually placed the clubs under the quota law in Pennsylvania and we know the troubles we are having today are due to the fact that ex-servicemen's clubs cannot be licensed in Pennsylvania under the quota law.

You are not voting on a bill that will place the distributors under a quota law, and the boys that are returning from this war, who are now in Korea will find the bars placed to stop them in entering the business of distributors in Pennsylvania.

As I said before, it is un-American; we should not monopolize any particular business.

The boys who are now fighting for our country should be given the opportunity when they return to enter this particular industry if they see fit.

Not so long ago a gentleman in my legislative district called on me to use my influence to allow his son who has served in World War II to be able to take out a distributor's license.

The same thing will apply when the boys come back from this particular war. I say to you today, the proper way to correct the evils in the distributing business in Pennsylvania is not by freezing those people into the business who are undesirable. This bill should have been recommitted to Committee and there should have been some standards set up so that the distributors in Pennsylvania would be proud of the business they are now in. In that way you could have eliminated the undesirables in the distributing business.

So my friends I plead with you this morning to think before you vote for this bill, because the boys will come back and say to you, "You as Members of the Legislature closed the door while we were away fighting for our country."

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would be very glad to.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know whether the gentleman from Westmoreland is familiar with the decision of the Quarter Sessions Court of Lehigh County in the case of Goodwill Fire Company versus Bethlehem at 166 PA Superior, page 42?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would advise him that I am not an attorney, and that the only knowledge I have of the particular case he mentions is that he drew it to my attention either yesterday or the day before, and I informed him at that particular time on my position and the way I felt about that particular ruling.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the other Members of the House I will read an excerpt.

Today it is accepted as true that there is a direct relationship between the public welfare and the ratio of licenses of all descriptions to the population.

Even our courts have come to that conclusion. So I am at a loss to understand upon what the gentleman from Westmoreland bases his conclusion that it is unAmerican to have quotas.

Mr. LOVETT. I did not understand the gentleman's question.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Corr, repeat his question?

Mr. CORR. The gentleman has made the statement that it is unAmerican to have quotas. So I read from a court decision which recognizes that quotas are legal.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I at no time said that they were illegal. There are a lot of things legal in Pennsylvania that I do not subscribe to. Many, many things are legal that I do not subscribe to.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker. I would like to further interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland in connection with his statements?

Does the gentleman from Westmoreland know that this is a highly competitive business and that for a new GI to return and enter into it he would be met with the following problems:

First, it is an overcrowded field, and secondly since we have quotas for taverns and clubs they already have their distributors, so the only field left for the GI would be the home trade.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question I would say that the GI who came back and entered the trade would certainly, if there was any consideration given to men who sacrificed in the interest of their country, at least the home trade business should be his.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman if he is familiar with the position of labor in connection with this bill?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman, as far as labor is concerned I could not by any stretch of imagination know why labor would prevent people from entering into a business of any kind in which the labor unions have the opportunity to organize such people.

Mr. CORR. In other words the gentleman is not familiar with their position on this bill?

Mr. LOVETT. Their position on this bill I am not familiar with, due to the fact that I could not understand why any labor organization would object to people entering into any business in which they now have the right to organize those people and care for their interests.

If the gentleman could explain to me why any labor organization should be interested in this bill I would greatly appreciate it.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, in the first place, before an employer can hire or pay employees he must have some security. Under the present setup the breweries can cut off the supply to any distributor tomorrow. Therefore with a bill of this type you will be able to attract into the distributing business a higher type of business man who can meet his payroll, who can offer steady employment to his employers.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman is telling me the reason why a labor organization is in favor of this particular bill, he tells me in one breath that the profession, or the business or the trade is overcrowded, and in the next breath he tells me that we should get reliable people. If you set up a quota you will never get any reliable people; the ones that are there now will stay there forever.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Corr desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland Mr. Lovette?

Mr. CORR. No I do not, not at this time Mr. Speaker. I would like permission to discuss the bill further.

This bill is a step in the right direction. It is not the answer to all the bills of the distributors. It will attract to the business and keep in the business men who are there on their own ability and not those who are in there or get into it on a basis of whom they know. Rather it would be a question of what they know. It is a highly competitive business. There is no security at the present time and this is a step in the right direction. I ask support for this bill.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I dislike very much to disagree with my learned colleague, Mr. Lovett from Westmoreland, but he seems to have very ably wrapped the American flag completely around this bill. And as I intend to vote for this bill, for the sake of the record, I surely do not want to be considered un-American by voting for this bill.

As a member of two of the major veteran organizations, none of them have contacted me in opposition to this bill. I am sure if this bill were so vital to the welfare of the men who are fighting for us now, that those organizations would be on their toes in opposing it. To date I do not know of their opposing the bill. Therefore, I do not think it quite fair to call the men un-American who intend to vote for this bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to my good friend, Mr. Maxwell, I did not by any stretch of imagination say that people who were going to vote for this bill were un-American. And for Mr. Maxwell to unwrap this flag which I put around the bill, he cannot by any manner of means get up here and by a few statements unwrap it. Because we found after World War II, that we did have the door closed to the service men who wanted club licenses, and you will find that the same thing will apply here.

My good friend Mr. Corr from Allegheny County, in his interrogation, pointed out a very good reason why I think we should recommit this bill and do something for the distributors in Pennsylvania. He told you that the breweries ruled and controlled the distributors in Pennsylvania. You do not cure that by putting in quota laws. If those conditions exist, we had better do something about controlling the brewery business in Pennsylvania.

I want everyone here to know that I am not interested in the breweries. I am not interested in any particular distributor. It is the principle with me. For the life of me, I do not know how you can say that the business you are trying to do something for, that there are undesirables in it, and that it is overcrowded; but you are now going to place a circle around those people and say: "You should be in and they shall be out."

My friends, I think it is very un-American, and I say to you that quota laws, up and down, are un-American. Free enterprise—we shout it from the house tops. Competition—free competition. So, I plead with you again to defeat this bill and get a bill that really does something in the interest of the distributors in Pennsylvania.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the liquor business is a business that exists by reason of sufferance. It is properly subject to regulations, it must be regulated. If all the GI's in the service at home and abroad are coming back to get in the distributing business, something should be done about it. The first thing we should do for the protection of the public is to pass this bill.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I am in complete accord with Mr. Lovett regarding this bill. No one questions the fact that there are some evils in the distribution of beer, and perhaps there are too many distributors in the state of Pennsylvania; but quota laws, as he has previously said, are un-American. Anything which stifles free competition, in my opinion, is un-American, especially when that competition has an adverse effect upon the public.

That is the situation today—and why this law? Some people say there are too many distributors, and that point we will concede. What harm do they do? The harm they do is that they sell beer to the public and to the tap owners, perhaps under the rate which some associations have taken upon themselves to establish as a fair price for beer. The price of beer is not regulated by the Liquor Control Board, but is regulated by associations and individuals themselves. Under the system of free enterprise that we have now, persons engaged in the distributing business sell at a price on which they think they can operate. Maybe falsely so—maybe some of them are operating at a loss. If they are, eventually they will fall by the wayside.

Now, if the public were involved directly in this business, it would be different.

The question of taprooms and clubs has been mentioned. There you have a different situation. There you have the public actually going in and drinking in these different places, and the places themselves can become dives. If free competition reaches a point where it gets too tough, they can become dives and serve adulterated products, and there are a lot of evils that can creep in. But in the distributor business, those evils cannot creep in. The only thing that can happen is that one distributor will sell the beer at a lower price than others. Now then, if that evil exists, there is a remedy.

I say to you Members of the House that there is only one thing with which we should be concerned when it comes to distributors of beer. That is that the men who distribute beer are of good moral character and that they have financial responsibility. That we could take care of by the proper sort of a bill. We could pass a bill in this Legislature which would require any person before he enters the beer distributing business to have some financial responsibility. We could require that he have the proper facilities for engaging in the business and then we could require good moral character previous to licensing that individual. If such a bill were to be presented I would be heartily in accord with it, because the evils which are existent now could be corrected in that manner. But when you bring about quotas then you bring about a situation which, as Mr. Lovett has said, is un-American. Why should not the boy who is in Korea or in Germany, or perhaps the boy who is now 15 or 16 years old have the same equal opportunity to engage in the beer distributing business when he arrives of age? Why should that privilege be denied him if he can furnish financial responsibility and show a good moral character? Is there any reason why the public is suffering from the fact that there are too many beer distributors? If there is a reason, I would like to know what the reason is which involves moral turpitude or the morality of the public.

Mr. CORR in his argument has attempted to bring out the Goodwill license case. The point in that particular case which has always disgusted me is the fact that I understand that in the Journal of this House it appears upon the records of this House that when the law was passed so far as retail liquor dealers were concerned when being asked upon the floor of the House, the sponsor said this does not apply to clubs. It is not the intention of this legislation to apply to clubs. Yet the courts in their decisions have completely overlooked and have completely ignored the true intent and purpose of this legislation. In other words, it is my opinion that the Courts in their decision usurped the power of this Legislature when they have gone beyond the legislative intent of the law. I am told—and I am not prepared to prove it at this moment—that in the Legislative Journal of this House would appear the statement by the sponsor of the bill at the time it was passed that it was not intended to place a quota upon clubs. If that is the case, then, of course, the courts, I believe, were at fault. And of course, as I have pointed out previously, the issue involved with reference to clubs and taprooms is quite different from the issue involved when a man delivers a case of beer to a home or delivers a case of beer to a taproom. He has no public relation there other than delivering, picking up the money and "goodbye."

As a veteran, as a state Judge Advocate, of the State Department of Pennsylvania, I am now, on behalf of those veterans who are unable to secure licenses—and I do not believe all of them, as suggested by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, will come back and want to be beer distributors—but if there is one in each county, if there is only one in the state of Pennsylvania, he should not have that right taken away from him, when he is fighting our battles over in Korea, or perhaps stationed in Germany. If there is just one of those men who is being denied his right to engage in a lawful business, I say this is an unjust action. I am thoroughly opposed to quotas except when they are necessary to protect public welfare, and as I have pointed out in this particular instance, it is not necessary.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I wish to join in the statements made by Mr. Lopresti and Mr. Lovett. I think the cardinal principle of the American systems has been free competition, laissez faire. The very basis of the American revolution was fought on that principle. We had the British impositions and restrictions and we wanted a system where every man could compete fairly with anyone else.

I think that every man here should examine his conscience and see what this legislation means.

Of course, temporarily it might save those distributors who presently might be subjected with certain evils due to competition. But these are larger principles. The principle of free competition and laissez faire. And I think we should bear in mind that there is a distinction here between the consumption or distribution by distributors. Make that distinction in your mind first. Therefore we should say that this is not a particular business which the state should regulate or place quotas upon. If we set a precedent here what is to stop us in the event that any other industry comes to this House and say, "Gentlemen, we are suffering from the evils of competition, grant us quotas and restrictions." And a third business and a fourth, they who are seeking the protection of government. It is a new mercantilism as I see it and we should now stand against this legislation and not establish a bad precedent in Pennsylvania.

I join with the gentlemen for that reason.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I do not intend to prolong the debate on this bill, and I hate to disagree with my Floor Leader, Mr. Andrews, on this particular piece of legislation.

He says that the liquor business needs regulation. If I recall, Mr. Andrews was here in 1933 when I was here and we passed what were known as the Pinchot bills in 1933. There were no quotas. There were certain standards that you had to meet. I agree on that.

If evils have gotten into the trade of the distributors, let us not say that the law enforcement bodies of the state of Pennsylvania cannot meet with those problems. We should bow our heads when we say that our law enforcement has come to the place where they cannot meet the problems of the day.

I say to you sincerely that we should not pass this bill today. If regulation is needed I am one who will be only too glad to regulate and demand that the interests and the standards of the particular trade be placed into law and then we will have done something in the interest of that particular trade.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, a point in my opinion which has been completely overlooked in connection with the argument on this bill is, just exactly how much of a quota bill is it?

The bill itself provides that there shall be one license for each ten thousand population. It puts a proviso in, however, that there may be five such licenses issued in any one county.

If you will go over the census of the state of Pennsylvania I think you will find that there are twenty-three counties in the State of Pennsylvania that have less than the population of fifty thousand. Those twenty-three counties will not be put on a quota basis equal to those with a population of over fifty thousand. Therefore, I cannot see any equality in the quota which is set up in the bill.

Mr. PFAFF. Mr. Speaker, in listening to the debate on this particular bill I think it is normally conceded that the business of distributing in Pennsylvania is already overcrowded.

I would just like to in my own way unwrap the American flag that has been tied around this bill. I think if we pass this particular legislation we will be doing the GI's a favor, in keeping them from going into an already overcrowded field and a highly competitive one.

As I understand the figures, New York today, a much more populated state than this, has about only one-third of the distributing licenses that this Commonwealth has.

I believe some regulating is necessary to put this highly overcrowded business in good shape, and I think this is a good piece of legislation and the Members of the House should support it.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to make clear one point. It has been stated on the floor that we are setting a precedent if we pass this bill. Now, I say that we are not setting a precedent. The precedent has already been set. You have your monopoly, your state liquor stores, you have your licensing, your taproom is under the quota. That precedent was set and you have your clubs under the quota. Therefore, I do not see, with any conceivable stretch of the imagination, how we are setting the quota.

If these gentlemen are so interested in the returning veteran why do not we do away with the greatest monopoly in the state of Pennsylvania, the state liquor store? Why do we not throw the quota open on the clubs and let these veterans' organizations have a chance to survive? Instead of that they have this quota on the veteran's clubs, they cannot get licenses and some of them are slowly starving to death. If they are so interested in the returning GI why do they not eliminate the quota on licensees and let everyone go into business.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I think inasmuch as no veteran's organization is opposing this bill the CIO and the AFofL labor unions are both in favor of this bill, I cannot see how any Member of this House can be wrong in voting for this bill.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, if I may prevail upon the time of this House for just a few moments, I rise to speak in favor of House Bill 959 commonly known as the distributors' quota.

At the present time distributors' licenses are not within the quota. I might tell this House that in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania there are more distributors' licenses than in any state in the Union.

It is the only license that is not brought within a quota at the present time. This bill would no remove any present licensee. All future licensees would have to come within a quota and that being on a basis of one for every ten thousand persons.

I must also inform my colleague who raised the question about a minimum of five for any county, that under the present Act there may be as many in any county as desired but this would place five in there. They need not take five but they could not get any more than five if the population would not warrant more than five distributors' licenses.

I think the bill is a good bill. I think it should be supported by every Member of the House and I therefore ask the support of every Member on House Bill 959.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ZIEGLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. What moral question will be cured by the quota law?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, at the present time there are many persons acting as distributors who could not secure a retail license. The quota was filled. They did not have the finances, the building, nor they did not meet any of the requirements.

Under the present Act there are no requirements that have to be met. If any individual filing an application had the necessary filing fee, the board had to give him a distributor's license, with the result that many persons are now going around with small trucks and they are, I would not say bootlegging, but I would say they are hawking or peddling beer by the case, and in many instances we have been informed they are peddling by the bottle.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Now the gentleman has given me a fine explanation of the economic question that would be settled or cured. I would like to know what moral question would be cured by establishing a quota?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I am not certain what if any moral question would be cured by placing the distributors in the quota.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, in other words, the gentleman is supporting this bill because it cures an economic situation.

Now then in like manner if we have too many drug stores, if we have too many food stores, or if we have too many food distributors in the wholesale end of it, would the gentleman likewise pass a quota bill to cure an economic situation?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I think the question is irrelevant, but in answer I would say I would not. I think the liquor traffic is something that we could very well get along without.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, what makes the distinction, if there are no moral questions involved?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, in my mind the distinction is just a necessity.

Mr. LOPRESTI. A necessity for what reason?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, personally I do not think there is any need for any additional distributors' licenses. In the first place the whole question of the liquor traffic depends upon the vote of the individual. As it was brought back so can it be destroyed. The entire industry can be destroyed over night by the vote.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, if there were too many drug stores and no longer a need for them, would the gentleman discontinue licensing druggists because you already have enough?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I would not.

Mr. LOPRESTI. The gentleman would not, but he is willing to limit beer distributors because he thinks there are now enough of those?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, I am.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has stated before that he knows of no moral question that will be cured by the quota law.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it is my personal intention to vote against 1039, 1060 and 1085, but I desire it to be distinctly understood that I am neither representing a party position or a caucus position.

Every Member on our side, of course, is at perfect liberty to express their own individual convictions on these measures. I am not asking any Member on our side or on the other side in any way to be governed by my vote. I am simply expressing a personal view.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, as you already know this bill would provide and make it legal for licensees to sell liquor by the bottle for consumption off the premises after nine o'clock at night. I do not think that is a good thing to do. The State Liquor Store system has been operating quite well. The stores are open I believe from about ten o'clock in the morning until nine at night, during which time people may purchase liquor. I am greatly afraid that a lot of evils are going to arise from a change such as proposed by this bill.

The liquor store clerks, I am informed, are given very strict instructions to sell liquor only to persons who are not intoxicated. Licensees are also forbidden by law to sell liquor by the drink to a person who appears to be intoxicated—and that is as it should be.

But this is what I think will happen in many, many cases if this bill becomes law. A customer of a certain taproom may drop in about seven or eight o'clock in the evening and sit at the bar or at a table and start drinking. Perhaps by ten o'clock at night he should go home. He had enough to drink. But about that time he will feel like doing anything but that, and he is very liable to purchase a bottle of liquor and continue his drinking elsewhere.

Perhaps he is driving a car. Perhaps when he buys the liquor he is not intoxicated. He is all right and can drive but we are certainly asking for trouble I think when somebody sells that man a bottle of liquor at ten or eleven o'clock at night.

Then too you have the problem of enforcing the law in sales to minors. For example, I have represented perhaps a dozen people in the liquor business in the last ten, twelve years. I know the difficulty these people have in determining whether a boy or girl is twenty-one years of age or more or less. It is very difficult when you look at a person who is eighteen, nineteen, or twenty to tell whether they are actually twenty-one years of age. It seems to me that a licensee who is busy waiting on other customers in a liquor establishment might have a great deal of difficulty determining whether he is selling that liquor to a person twenty-one years of age or less. Of course he does it on his own risk. But, what we want to do is keep the youngsters from getting liquor, whether it is by the drink or by the bottle.

If it were so necessary to the public welfare that this be done then I could go along with it. But I fail to see why it should inconvenience the public to be made to buy its liquor by the bottle during state store hours.

I know that Maryland and perhaps some other states have a different licensee system. There any grocery store, drug store or candy store on the corner practically, if it wants to, can have a license to sell liquor by the bottle. How it operates in that state I do not know, but I do think we have a good system now and I would like to see it retained.

This bill provides that any person purchasing such a bottle of liquor after nine o'clock must pay fifteen percent more than the retail price he would pay at the liquor store. That provision was put in I suppose to make it advisable for people to buy during the hours the State Liquor Stores are open.

But that is purely a matter of money. What I am most concerned about and really concerned about is the amount of liquor that is going to be sold at eleven or twelve or one o'clock in the morning to people who probably should not be drinking any more liquor at all that night.

How you are going to police this thing? I do not have the slightest idea. I know from experience from having been told by various clients that bottles of liquor are now sold in violation of the law to good friends of the taproom owner. How often that happens or what trouble arises through it I do not know. But mark you they would not sell it to anybody unless he was a pretty good friend because they would be afraid they would get into trouble. They usually know these people who come in and whether they can drink and how they can conduct themselves after they do drink. When we open the door here and let them sell to anybody over the age of twenty-one that comes into that establishment right up to two o'clock in the morning, then we are asking for trouble.

I would like to see this bill defeated.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to enter the discussion concerning this bill. However since the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, has opened the discussion, I would like to amplify my own position.

You know we sometimes say, Heaven defend us from our friends. What the liquor people should say is "Heaven defend us from the liquor people." If anybody is going to kill the liquor industry, it is the people in the industry.

Now our gracious and good friend, Dr. Poulson, who appeared in this chamber very recently in connection with legislation of this kind is a pretty smooth cookie. Just don't think he is not. He opens the door for the liquor business in any particular direction, and it is not because of any love for the liquor business. If he can, without offending the integrity of his position, he will gladly give the liquor business rope enough to hang itself.

The first measure, 1039, as the gentleman from Berks has pointed out, opens the door to sell to minors, to drunks, to drinking parties.

1060 brings back the saloon. We said we would never have a saloon. The saloon was out for good and for keeps.

But 1060 brings back the drinking place that is only a drinking place and it brings back the saloon.

The friends in the liquor business, if they are friends of the liquor business, ought to have the gumption to recognize that 1039 is a menace to the liquor business, and that 1060 is a menace to the liquor business. Anybody in the business that does not believe that way is simply blinded by the sight of an immediate dollar, and in chasing that immediate dollar, he is taking steps to give encouragement to the movement to wipe out the liquor business by means of law. We only have to pass a few bills like 1039 and 1060 to make prohibition a mighty live issue in the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I shall vote against Bill 1039 and Bill 1060 as a matter of principle and for the same reason that I voted in favor of Bill 959: it is a matter of principle. It will be interesting to see how many of those who voted in favor of 959 vote in favor also of 1039 and 1060.

Voting against House Bill 959 is a matter of principle, believing in competition and laissez faire, I voted for it not because I am in favor of free liquor or against free liquor or beverages and such, but as a matter of principle I acted as I did on 959.

I must agree with the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, and his remarks on House Bills 1039 and 1060. I believe that perhaps the session has been too long, and dragging it out as we have, perhaps some of us have lost our sense of balance. We are opening the door to much bad legislation, and the purpose of these two bills, I believe, will be to break down the entire fabric of liquor laws and the control of liquor and the consumption thereof that we have had in Pennsylvania heretofore.

I think every Member should think very carefully before voting on Bill 1039 or voting in favor of Bill 1060. I cannot add anything to the remarks that have been made on this floor in criticism of the two bills.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, we have now before the body House Bill No. 1085 for consideration. House Bill 1085 contains within its amendments which would subject the wholesale distributors and the Pennsylvania State Liquor Stores to local option. I realize the proponents of the measure will call upon the House to vote in its behalf, due to its being a home rule proposition.

The original intent of local option was not to take away the privilege of indulging in liquid refreshments by the people who wanted to, but it was to correct certain abuses of the traffic in liquor in certain residential areas. In my estimation this bill will not do that.

The only thing that this particular bill will do will be to deny the right to the people of the community of being able to go to the state store and procure a bottle of liquid refreshments for use in their home. The same is applied to the wholesale distributors in their procuring a case of beer. It will make them chase over into the next county or next municipality, disregarding the inconvenience that causes to them as well as the expense that they must go to in order to procure what they actually want for themselves.

I do not believe you are correcting any situation by the passage of such legislation, but I do believe that many evils will be created in the event of the passage of House Bill No. 1085.

The one evil, and I am firmly convinced that it will be created, is that it will make the bellhops and the bootblacks at every chance they have, set up as bootleggers of either legitimate liquors and liquid refreshments or illegitimate, because it is definitely, without question, a bootlegging bill.

I know of several municipalities in the state that have outlawed the taproom in their particular municipality; but I say to you that municipality would not outlaw its liquor store or wholesale distributor, but in the ensuing problem placed before us by this piece of legislation wherein a community that would want to vote out taprooms, due to the fact that they were disturbing the residents of that residential community may, acting hastily, invoke the local option on those particular places that are included in this bill. That would be a fallacy. I want to say that this would also be a step forward toward prohibition, the noble experiment. Certainly we do not want to come back to that.

I tried to amend this bill on second reading yesterday and failed, which would clarify the provisions of the bill. Inasmuch as they have not been clarified, I would want the membership to vote against the measure.

It was brought to the attention of the House that this bill was given a great amount of consideration. I want to disagree with my eminent colleague from Dauphin County, Mr. Ziegler, due to the fact that this bill in the consideration of the package proposal was just steam rolled, run through and brought out upon the floor of the House without good, decent consideration by the membership which was involved in giving it consideration before it came out of Committee.

The people want good legislation. They are willing to pay for good legislation, but they do not want those things foisted upon them which are going to subject them to great inconvenience. You will gain nothing except that the forces of prohibition will gain an inroad upon the thing that they ultimately want to see in effect in Pennsylvania, and that is prohibition in its fullest effect. I would kindly like to request your vote against House Bill No. 1085.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, If I were a dry—and I do not profess to be—I would certainly vote against this bill.

Under the present law, the local option features of the law allow voting out a public drinking place, such as a restaurant or a club. It does not allow the voting out of a state liquor store or beer distributor. But I believe the effect of this amendment, if it becomes law, will be to bring into the ranks of those who want a particular right to buy liquor and beer in their own community, many people who either now pay no attention to the question of liquor and beer in the public places, but who will be vitally interested in this particular measure if they knew that the right to purchase those things is going to be eliminated from their particular municipality.

As Mr. Petrosky pointed out a minute ago, this bill will not stop drinking in any area that votes dry. There is not a word in it which will forbid anybody from going wherever he can buy it, taking it home and drinking it. About all this think is going to accomplish in any area which votes dry is to force the residents of that area who desire to drink to go into another municipality, whether that be ten miles away or fifty miles away. It will force them to go there and buy their beer and liquor and take it home. And I say, if I were a dry, I would not like this bill, because it is very possible to get enough people to vote out the public restaurants in a certain area because perhaps they have been a nuisance or an eyesore, or other problems have arisen concerning them. If you are on that side, you do not have lined up against you all of these people who quietly go home and drink their beer and liquor. But under this thing, you are going to have all those people lined up against you, and you are going to have very few areas voting dry in the future.

I say I am no dry, but I am going to vote against this bill. It seems to me foolish to force anybody to drive 15 or 20 miles to buy a bottle of liquor or beer, but that is exactly what is going to happen in any area that votes dry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, when legislative history is written, this day will be recorded as the day of dupes as far as the advocates of the anti-dry cause in Pennsylvania are concerned. This bill that we are now considering has the blessing of the dry forces just as the quart bottle booze bill 1039 has the blessing of the dry forces, and just as the saloon bill 1060 has the blessing of the dry forces.

When I see the dries and the wets agree upon a bill, or upon a series of bills, to remove the stern hand of regulations from the liquor industry, to encourage the indiscriminate sale of liquor and to undermine the sovereignty of the State as the monopolistic dispenser of booze, when I see the wet and dry forces teamed up in behalf of that kind of a program I know somebody is getting fooled. I tell you that in this particular instance it is not the dries that are getting fooled.

The bill under consideration would submit the sovereignty of the State to local option verdicts. It is a legalistic and constitutional absurdity.

It is not the province under the scope of our basic liquor legislation for any locality to say where or when the sovereign state of Pennsylvania should establish a distributing center. When you begin to undermine the integrity of the state store system, and when you begin to undermine the integrity of the dispensing system at the retail level, and when you begin to undermine the legislation that has stood between the open saloon and the wide open saloon, you create a situation that is repugnant to sound morality.

This particular bill, I repeat, outrages the sovereignty of the state and is a constitutional and legalistic absurdity.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, there is one thing that occurs to me. I am just wondering whether the effect of this bill will not be another quota for distributors.

Under this bill it is possible that the distributors in one area will gang up and cooperate with the dry forces in the community to make their particular community dry, thus eliminating from the community a distributor.

To point out specifically what I mean, the distributors of the City of Johnstown district could possibly gang up on a distributor in the outlying districts, causing that particular district to go dry and thereby eliminating one competitor from the field. I am just wondering whether the effect of this bill is not going to increase the quota effect we just passed a few minutes ago.

You may have a distributor in the community that is very well established, very reliable and to all intents and purposes a good distributor. But if his district goes dry under the law we passed just a few minutes ago, he will not be able to move into the adjoining community and get a license, and we are going to do a terrific injustice to somebody down along the line. For that reason I am opposed to this bill.

Mr. ZEIGLER. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1085 was drawn after a lot of deliberation. In my opinion it was fairly drawn, carefully drawn and simply drawn. The confusion was eliminated in the bill. It was purposely eliminated so that no one could possibly be confused. The bill does four things. It allows the voters in a municipality to vote on one, two, three or four questions. And those questions are simply these:

- Does the community want to have beer license therein?
- Does the community want to have distributor's licenses?
- Does the community want to have liquor licenses?
- Does the community want to have state stores?

Now the people in that community when they have the proper number of signatures on a petition, may vote on one question, they may vote on two questions, three or four. And if they vote on one, two, three or four questions and that particular question is defeated, it may not vote on that same question again for a period of four years. That is the present law, and therein it is not changed.

I ask the Members of this House to support this bill because of all the bills that I know, it is not ambiguous, and I think most legislation is. But this is not.

The questions are there; they are simple, they are clear cut, and they are put on the ballot and they permit you to do one of four things. Again I say, you may vote on one, two, three, or four questions. For the simplicity of the bill and for the right that it gives to the people in the community, I ask the support of this House on House Bill 1085.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Petrosky, Readinger and Rovanseck.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, House Bill No. 1506 is what I would identify as a lefthanded way of breaking up the quota law of the licensees. And I would personally say that this piece of legislation that you are now offering to the ex-serviceman to get their foot in the door under the quota law is not very good legislation, if you are so insistent that we should have quota laws in Pennsylvania.

I am going to support this bill because I feel that this is one time I am at least going to break up a little of this quota stuff. You boys will possibly come back a few years later under the distributor's law and pass some other kind of legislation to let the door open again. years later under the distributor's law and pass some other kind of legislation to let the door open again.

I make these statements just to bring the attention of the House to just exactly what is going on here.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SWARTZ asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I first want to thank the Members for permitting me to change my vote on one particular bill. I was not asleep, as I stated here. I suppose I had my mind on what I wanted to say at the present time and therefore overlooked the roll call.

I know we have been here for quite a long time. In fact, longer than at any time in the history of the present Constitution, I believe. A certain date that I am not exactly familiar with.

There are two things that I want to discuss with you and I do not intend to go into a lot of lengthy discussion.

The first one is on the matter of our fiscal program, and I merely call upon the leaders of this House to recognize the will of the people in the matter of the income tax; that we get together and that we bring here a fiscal program which I know a lot of the minority party, I feel sure—that is the members of the minority party and the minority group of the Republican party—would support.

I do not like to pick up the papers, and I do not think a lot of people like to pick up the papers and see the income tax being put here, there and everywhere, with the statement now that it will be earmarked for education and so forth.

We do not need $119 million taxes. We could put through—and I am not going to go into the matter of what taxes I think we could put through to resolve the fiscal program. I am going to defer that until we return here on July 30th to see whether the leadership of this House and the leadership of the Senate are going to get together and finally show some activity and resolve this problem of fiscal policy and taxation.

I call upon the leadership to do that. Failing in that by the time we reconvene here I will come before this microphone and point out why we do not need the income tax if that be necessary again.

The second point and second reason why I rise here today is simply because of the fact that I am the only member of the Fighting Five who can speak out in these Halls on matters which I thought should not be brought before this House.

I understand that certain literature from our group has been received by Members of the House and of the Senate. I do not say whether that is proper or whether it is not. I have not spoken to any member of our group as to the reason why you men and women received that literature. But when on the other side of this legislative body certain Senate leaders get up and ridicule and criticize thousands of patriotic Americans and good Republicans who are known as the Kunkel-Fighting Five, then I must arise here and defend that particular group as not being affiliated with a campaign of hate-calling but as being affiliated and fighting for what we believe to be decency, honesty and efficiency in our government.

I say that outside of the people who reside in Dauphin County, no other party should enter into this picture. The offices at stake in this election are offices pertaining to the city of Harrisburg and to the county of Dauphin.

It is the business of the people of Dauphin County what we do in Dauphin County, and it is not the business of His Excellency the Governor; it is not the business of the Majority and Minority Leaders to inject themselves into our county fight.

So far as Attorney General Woodside is concerned, he has every right to state his opinions inasmuch as he is a resident of Dauphin County.

We are not in a campaign of hate-calling, name-calling and if we have resorted to direct attacks it is simply because we have found that it is necessary to fight fire with fire, and we are hitting where it hurts, and now they try to put on the sanctimonious cloak and make us look like the name-callers and the perpetrators of hate.

I just have this one thing to say: There is a gentleman by the name of William Wert who is one of our candidates, along with John C. Kunkel as a candidate for the county commissioner's office.

Except for the period of time when Governor Earle was the Governor of this Commonwealth, Mr. Wert was employed by the Department of Health. He has five sons who served their native land; they served their country and I believe two are still in the service of their country.

They fired William Wert from the Department of Health. We did not do it, they did it. I say that any American has the right to run for office regardless of what side he is on; whether he has sanction of Senator Harvey Taylor or whether he does not have the sanction of Senator Taylor.

Who started the hate and the name-calling? Firing a man like William Wert, an honest, God-fearing, hard-working American simply because he is not on the right side of the fence!

I say that the American people and the people of Dauphin County are sick and tired of that.

Who is calling names? Judge Rupp, which this paper comes out in support of his nomination, can they say anything against Judge Rupp whom we support? The President Judge of the Dauphin County courts, simply because he will not abide by one Mr. Nelley who originally sponsored him, Judge Rupp is no longer any good. And I could go on and on and on.

I just want to put it straight for the people all over who have read the message of the Majority and the Minority Leaders, that if there is any name-calling it was not we who started it. We did not begin with the firing of honest citizens like William Wert. They started it.

As I said before, I do not like politics. I hate politics. I despise politics. But I will fight for what I believe is right until the day that I die and no man can move me from that position. The firing of men like William Wert is not right and never will be right and that is what we are fighting.

I want the people to know that and thanks a lot, folks, for listening.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. HARVEY A. MOORE, BOORSE, McCULLOUGH and WHITE offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, July 17, 1951.

Fifty-three years ago our fellow member Thomas H. Greer, Jr. was born in Knoxville, Allegheny County.

Educated in the Butler High School, Butler, Pennsylv-vania, Amherst College and the University of Pittsburgh Law School, he has throughout his adult life acted for the better interests of Butler and Butler County, where he is a practicing attorney.

During World War I he served in the United States Navy, and as a follow-up to that service, he has been active in the American Legion of which he is a past commander, and is also Past Chef de Gare, Forty and Eight.

Tom Greer is a family man, the father of Priscilla Greer artz, and his two grandchildren of whom he is understandably proud.

We know Tom Greer, who has been a member with us since 1945, as a jovial, kind and considerate person, ready at all times to aid and assist those who call upon him for advice and assistance; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of this House of Representatives hereby congratulate our fellow member, Thomas H. Greer, Jr., on the occasion of his fifty-third birthday anniversary and wish him continued success and good fortune in the future.

HARVEY A. MOORE
HOWARD F. BOORSE
W. H. McCULLOUGH
ROBERT M. WHITE

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Butler, Mr. Greer.

Mr. GREER. Mr. Speaker, in spite of the fact that I advised several Members of the House yesterday that I did not want such a thing done, they have put in the resolution, publicized my age and have gone ahead and presented this very fine gesture.

I thank the House very much. I appreciate this having been done, but I did not want to have it that way. I was almost out of this House when I was called back. Nevertheless, I thank the House for having taken enough time to hear this resolution read.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, at this late hour with a check-out date of five o'clock I do not want to get into any discussion with anyone. But the gentleman from Dauphin made several statements that I think should be cleared up.

When he stated the Majority and the Minority Leaders, he definitely did not state whether it was the Senate or the House. I believe he meant the Senate, but for the sake of the record I would like it to remain that way.

The second statement that he made—and I do not want to get into any Dauphin County fight or any other fight, he stated that he would thank the Members of the House and the Senate to remain out of the Dauphin County fight. That is his prerogative, and I should hope they do too. But I would like to remind the gentleman that the Fighting Five certainly are filling up my mail box and everybody else's mail box in this House. Maybe we would thank them to keep their mail out of our boxes.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I did not halt the gentleman from Dauphin in the course of his remarks by raising a point of order. However, the fact that out of courtesy to the gentleman from Dauphin, we did not raise the point, we would not want any other Members of the House to draw the conclusion that we regard the gentleman's discourse as a precedent.

We reserve the right in the future, in the event that there is a repetition of such discourses, to raise a point or order.

It is distinctly undesirable that this Chamber should become a cockpit in which the protagonists in any local situation wage their local battles. I have as much right to discuss the affairs of Cambria County here as the gentleman has to discuss the issues in Dauphin County, and there are 67 counties. We very, very clearly cannot tolerate any course on the part of the membership, either one or a group which would bring these local battles within this Chamber.

I approve of what the Majority Leader has said. The mail from the Fighting Five, if they wish to inform us, should have been sent to our home addresses; not to us here as Members of the Legislature.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ZIEGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I heartily concur in the statements of the gentleman from Cambria. There is little that I can add to what he has said, and certainly I cannot say it nearly so well.

I do want to say this. The gentleman from Dauphin did not continue on with one statement that he made to the effect that one William Wert was dismissed. I think he should have been very fair and have told you that a sister of William Wert is still in the employ of the Commonwealth; and also that the sister of one William Dunbar, who is running for the office of District Attorney, is also in the employ of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. LEONARD from the Committee on Professional Licensure, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1326 entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the nineteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred nine (P. L. 46), entitled "An act to regulate the practice of osteopathy in the State of Pennsylvania; to provide for the establishment of a State Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to define the powers and duties of said Board of Osteopathic Examiners; to provide for the examining and licensing of osteopaths in this State; and to provide penalties for the violation of this act," by providing for the licensing without examinations of persons licensed by the provinces of the Dominion of Canada in certain cases.

Mr. POLASKI from the Committee on Cities—Third Class, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1574 entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-third day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932), entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," by changing certain provisions relating to contracts, recreation places, highways, expense accounts of delegates to conventions, and payments by the city into police and firemen's pension funds.

Mr. POLASKI from the Committee on Cities—Third Class, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 121 entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" by authorizing the classification of real estate into buildings on land and land exclusive of the buildings for city assessment and tax-levying purposes at separate and different rates.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent of the House to make a brief statement.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz, asks unanimous consent of the House to address the House. Will the House give its unanimous consent? The Chair hears objections.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I will agree if there are not going to be any more campaign speeches. We have had enough today and previous to this day, and I will not consent if there is going to be another campaign speech.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, this is not a campaign speech.

Mr. SMITH. I will consent then, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no objections, and recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Swartz.

Mr. SWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I merely rise to state that the Majority Leader is correct. I should have mentioned whether it was the House or Senate leadership. It was the Senate leadership. I also want to state to the Honorable Mr. Andrews, as I started out in my speech to say, that if it had not been that our group was mentioned in the Senate—personally I do not have any argument if somebody is going to rise over there to praise a fellow Senator, but the name of our group entered into the discussion, and that is why I rose here today. If our name had not been mentioned, I would not have risen. I want to make that clear.

SENATE

MONDAY, July 30, 1951.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. EDGAR C. IRWIN, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Ford City, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, it is with more than a sense of formality that we invoke Thy divine blessing. By Thy providence we exist as a people, great in power, resource and influence. Continue to use, we beseech Thee, that blessing that has had so much a part in making us what we are.

Especially now we ask Thy blessing upon the elected officers of this State, those who have been chosen by the electorate of this Commonwealth to lead in the executive and legislative affairs, the Governor, these Senators and Representatives of the people. Grant that they may so discharge the duties of their offices as to be worthy of honor in the sight of men and in Thy sight. Grant to them a sense of the reality of things unseen, so that they may have as much concern in pleasing Thee as in satisfying their constituency.

We ask these things in the name of our God and Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. LANE. Recently there has been considerable agitation by certain individuals for the adoption of the Pennsylvania plan for the selection and tenure of judges.

I am still of the opinion that the present division of government in Pennsylvania, as provided by the Constitution, should be maintained. The Constitution has always provided for three divisions, executive, legislative and judicial, the representatives of each being elected by popular vote.

There has been a noticeable growth in the extension of authority by the Executive Department, so that, by means of patronage and other pressures, the legislative program generally has been determined by the Executive. I am convinced the Judiciary should be a free and independent department under no obligation whatever to the Executive. The history of Europe furnishes many illustrations of the disappearance of human freedoms when a controlled judiciary exists.

I do not find any fault with the fact that a judge is answerable to the electors each ten years; in fact, I think he should be. While the electors will make some mistakes in selecting their judges, and other officials for that matter—and they have done so in the past, principally by reason of the indifference of voters—I do not think there will be as many mistakes as will result from the selection of judges by politically elected officials.

You will notice there has been a departure from the Missouri plan. In the Missouri plan the selection must be made from the three names submitted by the commission. By the Pennsylvania plan if none of the three names submitted are satisfactory to the Executive, he can require three additional submissions and so on, until the name of the person he desires to appoint has been submitted. So, any apparent choice by the commission is only a pretext.

An election where the voter has a choice only of voting "yes" or "no" on the one candidate submitted provides no fair test of the judicial fitness of that candidate. Particularly is this true where a rejection of the candidate will only result in another appointment by the Executive.

The plan in nonpolitical in name only. It is a fact that in Missouri, where it has had the longest experience, all appointments by the Governor have been from his political party. Missouri during that period has had governors from both parties and this has been a uniform practice. If the same course be followed in Pennsylvania, the effect would eventually be to make all judges members of one party. If the real purpose is to remove the political feature from the election of judges, a constitutional amendment is not required. Pennsylvania did operate at one time under a nonpartisan ballot for the election of judges, which apparently worked so successfully that it was unsatisfactory to the majority political party and, therefore, the act was repealed.

There has been entirely too much drift towards the centralization of power, and I think it would be unfortunate for the electorate to surrender their right to select their own judges. It is absurd to argue that the ordinary voter is so incompetent or so untrustworthy that he is not fitted to select the judges of the district in which he lives, but is perfectly competent by party ballot to select the Governor who, in turn, appoints the judges.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. WADE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, if there has been any one subject that has received the proper attention of the Members of this Senate, and the House as well, it has been the matter of State finance and the increase in the cost of state government. The biennium, 1939-1941, included a budget and the adoption of a budget by the Legislature of $570,000,000. The amount expended during the past biennium was $1,313,000,000 plus.

Therefore, Mr. President, because of the alarm of many of my colleagues in the Senate on both sides, I am presenting to the Senate today a resolution sponsored by Senator Diehm of Lancaster, Senator Snowden of Lycoming, and myself.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE URGING THAT A COMMISSION BE APPOINTED TO DETERMINE CONDITION OF STATE GOVERNMENT AND ITS FINANCES, THE IMPROVEMENTS AND ECONOMIES THAT CAN BE MADE

Messrs. WADE, DIEHM and SNOWDEN offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Rules:

July 30, 1951.

Government spending, on both National and State levels, during the past decade, has increased in many instances more than ten fold. Many of these increases seem unavoidable. As to others, many citizens and taxpayers have grave doubt. The Pennsylvania budget has increased from $570,000,000 in the 1939-41 biennium to total expenditures during the biennium just ended of $1,313,864,122.05; exclusive of $440,000,000 paid out in bonus to Veterans of World War II.

To pay for this spending, individual taxes are heavy and corporation taxes have increased at a greatly higher rate than the rate of increase in their earnings, which threatens to take industry from our industrial State.

Information is that we lose three congressmen in the decennial apportionment of congressional districts, while other states gain, one a total of seven members. This indicates that our growth has not kept pace with comparable industrial states.

The introduction at the present session of the General Assembly of 138 appropriation bills in the Senate for a total of $161,182,161.73, and of 119 appropriation bills in the House for a total of $798,147,003.50, including $624,115,405.50, in the General Appropriation Bill, indicates no sign of an economy drive, but rather an anxiety on the part of Members of the General Assembly to obtain State funds for institutions and other projects in their own districts in which they hold a particular interest and in which they see at first hand, matters of primary importance.

The increase in debt obligations in the past few years, including moneys owed by authorities on both State and local levels, is appalling.

In spite of continually rising need for public revenue, the average State employe is still underpaid, whether or not this may be due in some degree to carrying on the payrolls of persons who do not perform services commensurate with their State salaries. The payment of higher compensation by the Federal Government and private employers, and the threat of dismissal because of political reprisals, makes the securing and holding of competent employes in State service a serious matter.

The Commonwealth's share of contributions to the various public employes' retirement funds has increased from $8,900,000, for the biennium 1941-1943 to $48,900,000, for 1951-1953. This amount must all be paid from taxes.

All judges of the local courts are properly paid from the State Treasury. At each session of the General Assembly demands for new judgeships are made. There are now pending bills for eight new judges throughout the Commonwealth, plus bills for increases in judicial salaries.

Charges persist that relief rolls are padded and are being constantly built up, instead of being decreased by removing persons from general relief who are no longer eligible therefor. The burden on our taxpayers is heavy. Our State is reputedly one of only two where the entire burden is on the State level, a fact which may tend to laxity in administration.

The ever increasing demands on the accommodations of welfare institutions makes necessary the purchase of additional land and the erection and equipment of new buildings. One large institution has promoted a bill in the current session, which, if passed, would permit purchase of approximately 50% more land.

The newly organized State Psychiatric Institutions cannot operate as proposed without the employment of psychiatrists of the highest type if the institutions are to serve with credit and justify the large expenditures of tax moneys. In securing these services, it is necessary to compete with private institutions in making both salaries and working conditions attractive.

Statements are made that more than $400,000, in free services to individuals, who reputedly could well afford to pay, have been charged off at the State owned and operated medical and surgical hospitals, without return to the State.

Charges have been made on the Senate floor of excessive expenditures for postage and supplies by State agencies and departments; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the taxpayers of the State, including individuals, industrial firms and business enterprises, educational institutions, hospitals and other public and semi-public institutions are concerned, alarmed and confused by reports in the public press and by statements issued by informed sources, as to the true condition of our State Government and its finances, and the improvements and economies that can or may be brought about. In order to determine these matters accurately, and fully, there is hereby created a commission to consist of five (5) Senators to be appointed by the President pro tempore, five (5) Members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker and five (5) persons appointed by the Governor. The persons appointed by the Governor shall not be members of the General Assembly nor elected or appointed officers of the State Government.

The commission shall immediately upon the appointment of its members, make a detailed and exhaustive investigation of all charges made against any agency of the State Government, and a careful study of the needs and expenditures of all agencies, with a view to determining where additional services and appropriations are needed, where improper expenditures are made, where waste occurs, and where needless expenditures may be eliminated.

The commission shall have power to issue subpoenas to require the appearance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and records before it. Such subpoenas may be issued during the interim between legislative sessions, shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued by either branch of the General Assembly, and compliance therewith shall be enforced in the same manner.

The commission shall record all testimony adduced by it; and shall report its findings of fact in detail, together with its recommendations for improvements and remedies, not later than sixty days prior to the convening of the General Assembly for its regular session in the year 1953.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 1271 is a bill which is designed to grant appeals to school districts from the valuation assessments fixed by the Tax Equalization Board.

Prior to the passage of Act 447 by the 1947 session assessed valuations were used by the Superintendent of Public Instruction as the base for the allocation and distribution of school subsidies. Even though many school districts at that time were receiving an inequitable share of the school subsidies due to the lack of uniformity in assessed valuations, there was still provision for appeals.

Act 447 prescribes the methods to be used by the Tax Equalization Board for the determination of the uniform market value of the assessed taxable real property in each of the 2,531 school districts. This uniform market value is to be used instead of the local assessed valuations to insure an equitable distribution of subsidies to all the school districts.

Section 13 of the Act provides that the school districts may file objections to their market value with the Tax Equalization Board and are granted a hearing by the board.

For the first time school districts had an opportunity to appeal, that is, an appeal might be made by the school district to the Tax Equalization Board.

The bill now before the House for consideration is to allow an appeal from the valuations fixed by the Tax Equalization Board to the courts of Dauphin County.

It should be noted that following the 1950 certification of market values to the Superintendent of Public Instruction, only 47 school districts of the total of 2,531 filed objections with the Board. However, after the hearings were scheduled for these 47 districts, 36 voluntarily withdrew their objections before the hearings and their original certifications of market values were accepted. In other words, only 11 school districts out of a total of 2,531 in the Commonwealth elected to have full hearings before the Board.

In recent cases the Dauphin County court and the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania ruled, under the provisions of Section 13 of Act 447, in favor of the Commonwealth. In four cases a taxpayer and a school district were the plaintiffs. The results of those court decisions, I think, are very important to the consideration of this bill before the House at the present time.

The Dauphin County Court held in a suit brought by the taxpayer and the township that the Tax Equalization Board is required to determine the market value of taxable real property in each school district. Their determinations are used solely for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the state subsidy for each school district and have no bearing whatever upon your local taxation. The scheme was devised to provide a common and equitable basis for the allocation, rather than the variable and inequitable bases resulting from local determinations. There being 2,531 school districts in the state and an untold number of taxpayers, the whole scheme of allocating subsidies might well be disrupted were each school district and each taxpayer given the right of appeal or its equivalent.

The plaintiff's appeal from this decision of the Dauphin County Court went to the Supreme Court, and the Supreme Court sustained the Dauphin County Court upon the opinion of Judge Richards in that case.

In another case taken directly to the Supreme Court by a school district, the Supreme Court held the appropriation and distribution of the school subsidy is a peculiar prerogative of the Legislature, for no other branch of government has power to appropriate funds. Though the Legislature ordinarily ascertains its facts through its Legislative committees or commissions, there is no reason why it cannot do so by a particular board as here set up. It could have provided for a review of that board's findings by a judicial tribunal, but it is not required to do so. No property right is involved and we must respect the Legislative prerogative to control the state's finances, a prerogative that is subject only to constitutional limitations.

The Tax Equalization Board was a device which was set up by the Legislature to try to equalize what they give by way of subsidies to the local districts. I do not believe that we should allow the courts to alter those provisions. The amendments which were offered to this bill two weeks ago presume or presuppose that the courts in all instances would find for a decreased valuation. In case of a decreased valuation, that is going to throw your entire subsidy program out of whack, so to speak, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction is never going to be quite sure exactly how stable his calculations on his subsidy program are going to be.

In effect if payments are made under the bill as now amended and the courts should find a decrease in the valuation, those school districts then would find themselves in the position of overpayments, which would in effect mean that some method would have to be devised to recover that money. By the same token, there is no provision in the bill to provide what shall be done if the courts should increase the amount of the valuations.

The whole bill, in my opinion, is one that does not belong on our statute books for the reason that the Legislature has a right, as the Supreme Court has stated, to regulate its own appropriations and to fix the method by which those appropriations shall be made. For that reason, in order to maintain the stability of the subsidies which we are giving to our several school districts, I ask that the Members of this House vote down this bill.

Mr. SPENCER. Mr. Speaker, I am not an attorney and I am not going to attempt to talk on this bill from the legal standpoint.

As my good friend, Mr. Tompkins, has told you, and I believe that the majority of you people here today will agree with me, when a board of three men have the right to set the market value of the property all over the state of Pennsylvania there should be some right of appeal, other than to the board itself.

I am going to give just a little example of what may happen, or what can happen. You may have very new properties sold in a certain community during the time that they make their valuations. Those properties may be sold at exceptionally high prices; they may be properties that are in certain locations and those properties are going to set, as I understand it, the values for the whole community. That is according to the assessed valuation of it.

We have one example, right here near Harrisburg, in Adams County. There was a group that came into Adams County and bought some farms that ran up as high as $65,000. Two years later that farm that was sold for $65,000 was sold back to the original owner for $18,000. I would like to ask each and every one of you if you think that would be a fair value to place upon the properties of that county.

To say that it does not affect the taxpayers if the tax is not levied upon this valuation, I agree with that. But the school subsidy that that district gets is certainly based upon the valuation that is used by that Tax Equalization Board.

You have the Public Utility Commission which you say is a five man commission, but you have the right to appeal; you have a right to appeal to the Compensation Board; you have the right to appeal to your Unemployment Compensation Board; and I cannot see for the life of me any reason why there is anything wrong in a district having the right to appeal to the courts because three men in the state of Pennsylvania have the right to say that their decision is final.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, the fact still remains that the money which constitutes a subsidy is money which is appropriated by the state. The state has a right to set its own formula for the distribution of its own funds. It has been making an attempt to do it on an equal basis. This has been the first step in the direction of doing so.

We all know what the inequities were that existed on account of very low local assessments, prior to the time of the enactment of this tax equalization program. It is true, there may be one or two inequities that exist such as the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Spencer, points out at the present time, but I warrant that the inequities that exist under the present program are far, far less than what they were under the previous program.

Those people who were not carrying their fair share of the load back home prior to the tax equalization program are now being placed in a position of carrying their fair share of the load the same as everybody else in the state of Pennsylvania.

Why we should allow a local assessment board to put hardly any values on real estate in order to get large subsidies from the state, and let the state carry their whole program to the detriment of those people who are trying to honestly carry their own program, I do not know. Now this board is merely the formula which the Legislature has set up for the purpose of distributing the funds which it appropriates. I do not believe that we should allow anybody but the Legislature itself to regulate that formula.

Mr. SPENCER. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Cameron a question?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPENCER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that having the right to make this appeal to the Dauphin County Court, that that would change the entire program so that as he stated, the Legislature could give this prerogative to the Tax Equalization Board to make these valuations; does he think that that is going to change the state picture? I do not.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I believe that it will for this season: If a school district shall come into the Dauphin County Court perhaps aided and abetted by some of the larger taxpayers in their particular district, and break down the valuations fixed by the Tax Equalization Board, that will be an open signal to the larger corporations and the heavier taxpayers in the state of Pennsylvania to do likewise. I am inclined to believe that you are going to find a great big flood of suits in the Dauphin County Court to break the tax equalization program, because if one can do it the next fellow can do it likewise.

Mr. SPENCER. Mr. Speaker, in regard to that answer, I still cannot agree with the gentleman from Cameron that it is going to cause any flood of suits. As he said, there have only been eleven appeals from the decisions of the board.

Now if one county or a couple of counties have been severely hurt by the Tax Equalization Board's decision I cannot for the life of me see where you are going to have this flood of appeals that you speak of made to the Dauphin County court.

When we amended the bill putting it back into the Dauphin County Court it was just for the one reason that there would be a definite plan; that there would not be 67 different formulae used, and I think that after there might be one or two appeals to the Dauphin County court, there would be a definite plan set up by that court which would take care of most of the other appeals. That in my opinion is exactly what would happen.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, in that respect we would merely be substituting the judgment of the Dauphin County court for that of the Tax Equalization Board and would only be passing it from one hand to the other and taking it away from the control of the Legislature where it rightfully belongs. It is an appropriation which we propose to distribute.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, concerning this bill, there has been a difference of opinion on this side of the House from the very first. Some Members on this side of the House liked the bill in its original form; some Members did not. Some Members on this side of the House liked the bill as amended; some Members did not.

I have listened to the gentleman from Cameron with great attention. I always knew, or at least I hoped, that if the gentleman from Cameron made enough addresses on the floor of the House and I were here long enough ultimately he would make an address with which I was in thorough agreement.

If I had been in doubt, the gentleman from Cameron, in his first presentation would have convinced me. I am speaking only for myself and am not voicing the opinion of the Minority Membership.

A hole in a pattern is a hole. It does not matter as far as the pattern is concerned whether there is one hole in it, two holes in it or three holes in it, the pattern has been defaced.

The Tax Equalization Board must necessarily evolve a formula. That formula must necessarily be uniformly applied throughout the Commonwealth. There is no assurance that the Dauphin County court, or any other court, would approve of a formula to which the Tax Equalization Board is committed. But the result of the formula is uniform treatment throughout the Commonwealth.

The gentleman from Cameron is exactly correct, constitutionally, when he says that this Legislature has a right to evolve the formula and through a committee do the work that the Tax Equalization Board is doing or it can commit that work into the keeping of a Tax Equalization Board.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, without committing any other Member of the House, I am against the bill in its present form just as I was opposed to it in its original form.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. FROST. The next eight bills 1300, 1301, 1309, 1311, 1333, 1334, 1377 and 1378 simply put present laws in line so if there is a county or multiple county health unit setup, it can function under such a set-up. That is all those bills do; they are all hinged on 1310, which was passed.

I wonder if it would save time if I would suggest that those eight bills,—there is one other bill which I will take up later,—but those eight bills, if I would suggest that those bills take the same roll call as 1290, which is exactly the same as the others, only with reference to a different law. I so suggest Mr. Speaker. That leaves only 1376 in the package—

Mr. Speaker, I will modify that suggestion. There is apparently some objection to 1378. I will only call up seven, 1300, 1301, 1309, 1311, 1333, 1334 and 1377.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. FROST.

Section 79 Saving clause the provisions of this act so far as they are the same as the provisions of the laws repealed by this act are intended as a continuation of such laws and not as new enactments

Section 80 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate briefly the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ZIEGLER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to clarify my mind on this bill and therefore I ask the gentleman the relationship of this bill with 1310. I understand that 1310 is an amendment which says that any municipality which already has a Board of Health, does not come under the provisions of 1310. Does that mean that any municipality which has a Board of Health also does not come under the provisions of 1378, in your understanding?

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, in my opinion if the county or the city already has a Board of Health and does not come under the provisions of 1310 by reason of being an exception or being exempt, in my opinion 1310 would not apply.

Mr. SEYLER. In order to make it more specific, Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if a city which now has a plumbing inspector and plumbing examiners, I would like to know whether such a city would be affected by the provisions of 1378?

Mr. ZIEGLER. I do not think it would, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SEYLER. In other words the county board, if such a board were established in that county by the commissioners or by other means provided, would have no jurisdiction over either the plumbing inspection or the granting of plumbers' licenses in a city which already has its own way of making that provision.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, that is my understanding.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, before leaving Harrisburg at the last session I studied this bill for two or three hours, I imagine, and after that length of time I concluded that I needed a lawyer.

I have listened to answers to some questions and the answers are "I think" and "I understand." Now, is there anyone in the House who knows, because it is an important thing in my mind as to whether it does or it does not. To think or to understand is not quite a satisfactory answer in my opinion.

In reading over the bill I find toward the end of it that there are several repealers, and they state that they repeal absolutely these particular laws. Then clear at the end we come to a saving clause which says that insofar as the provisions of this bill are the same, this is a continuation.

After I get through reading the wording or the bill

I do not know whether we are going to retain the other laws or we are going to repeal them absolutely as this particular bill says we are going to.

If the provisions are not the same, then I would take it that they would be repealed. If you have a county health officer and a city health officer then you would have conflicting officers, and I do not know under which law the third class cities would be operating.

If there is somebody who can give me a definite answer, —and I will say to you very frankly I do not know after having studied the bill, what the answer is,—if there is someone who can give me a definite answer I would appreciate it very much.

Mr. ZIEGLER. Mr. Speaker, if a county does not accept the provisions of 1310 the provisions of 1378 do not apply.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I understand Mr. Ziegler's last statement, but what we are concerned about is not the case of a county which does not accept the plan. We are interested in the case of a county which does accept the plan, and then we are wondering whether that county board of health can set up a plumbing inspector and a plumbing board of examiners who will have jurisdiction over the city plumbing situation. Obviously if it can you may have the situation where a person, a plumber let us say from the county, is set up as plumbing inspector over the city plumbers, which seems to me a situation to be avoided, since the situation in the county and the city is so different.

Furthermore you might have a county board of examiners set up by the county board who would be able to limit entrance into the plumbing occupation in the city by a set of standards which perhaps would not meet at all the needs of the city in regard to the examination of plumber applicants.

The question is whether in case the county does accept this county plan is a city which already has a system set up going to be controlled by the actions of that county board?

I think the point made by the gentleman from Cambria is very well taken, that this is a rather important matter, and I think if the sponsor is not prepared with a definite and definitive answer on this it might be wise to hold this bill until such an answer can be obtained, perhaps from the Attorney General or some other source that we can take as authoritative. Otherwise I think it would be unwise for anyone who is interested in the welfare of cities and particularly the plumbers in cities to vote for this bill until such assurance is secured.

Mr. ZIEGLER. I understand that if the municipality does not accept, or does not come within the provisions of Bill 1310, and there is a county board setup, they will not supersede any city board already in existence.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I am at a loss to understand how 1310 can control the operation of 1378. 1378 is a separate law, and I do not know of any place in 1378 where it says that it is to be applicable only to those cases under 1310. I just cannot understand it. I have made a thorough study of it and I cannot figure it out. I am not saying that the gentleman is not correct, but I would like to be sure.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1523, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 10 of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred seventy-four (P. L. 186) entitled "An act declaring what offices are incompatible" by making elective county offices and members of the legislature incompatible. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 10 of the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred seventy-four (P. L. 186) entitled "An act declaring what offices are incompatible" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 10 It shall not be lawful for any member of either branch of the legislature to hold or to exercise an elective county office or the office of councilman in any incorporated city of this commonwealth

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the issue which this bill raises is an issue which I believe can probably be referred to the voting constituencies in the various parts of the Commonwealth.

If the people in any voting constituency in their sovereign will decide that someone holding an elective office in the county would make a fitting and proper representative in the General Assembly, it is within their right to so decree. I do not believe that this is a realm in which the General Assembly should obtrude itself.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I am very much surprised that at such an early date my good friends Mr. Kent and Mr. Hewitt want to eliminate me from this legislative body.

Members of the House, I want to say that I agree to the statement of the Minority Leader of the House in its entirety that the will of the electorate should make the decision that you are trying to legislate here in these halls. I do not think it is good legislation; I think we should let the people back home decide it. Therefore, I would like to hear the Members vote against House Bill No. 1523.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I listened very attentively to the remarks by the Minority Leader and also the gentleman from Westmoreland. I have been of the firm conviction for many years that no man can serve as a county officer, for instance as a county commissioner, and serve in the Legislature and do both jobs well.

This job here you see now is becoming almost a year round job. We are now going into the eighth month.

There are three county commissioners, two majority and one minority, and even in the small counties as well as the larger counties there are millions and millions of dollars involved. Perhaps with the three county commissioners, two of the majority party and one of the minority, and one of the majority party is elected to the Legislature, he is here for seven or eight months or a year, he leaves and goes back home to fight the matter out. The result is they get no action at all.

I believe this is a good piece of legislation. I do not believe that any man in the lower house would accept both salaries. I do not know how it would be other but it would not be here. I do not believe Mr. Petrosky would take salaries from both places if he were elected a county commissioner if Westmoreland County.

Mr. ANDREWS. In reply to the gentlemen from Indiana, I would like to state that anybody that has sense enough to be elected to a county office has sense enough not to get mixed up in the kind of a dog fight we have here at the present time.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of the record I had not intended to run for reelection to the Assembly whether I won or lost my county nomination or my general election fight. But I do take exception to this type of legislation. I say to the members of the House that we should amend this bill and state specifically that no Member could serve and also be on the payroll of the Pennsylvania Railroad or of any other vested interest in the state. That would make it proper and give truly representative government to the people back home.

Mr. HEWITT. Just a few words with reference to the remarks of the gentleman from Westmoreland. This bill only affects elective officers. The Pennsylvania Railroad and the different coal and steel companies employ people by the month, but they are not elected. I am speaking of elective officers.

I am really very sorry to hear that Mr. Petrosky is not going to attempt to come back to the Legislature and in all sincerity I am sorry to have him refuse to run next year.

But I am still for this bill. I think it is a good piece of legislation.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rec. EDGAR C. IRWIN, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Ford City, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Guide and Judge of the nations, look upon this Session of the Legislature of this State here assembled and grant Legislators Thy light and Thy guidance. We are part of a great Nation and that Nation can be no stronger than the combined strength of its composing units. Not by boasting that our system of government is nobler than that of those with whom we are in competition for predominance in world leadership, but by being nobler in thought and word and act and attitude, in accordance with Thy ways, shall we be great.

May we wholeheartedly seek to know and follow the best as Thou givest us to see the best, tolerant of those who disagree with us, and seeking at the same time to be in closest correspondence with Thee, not sacrificing to any set of men that freedom of conscience and trust in Thy providence for which we are deeply answerable, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, we are necessarily at this moment today in a very crucial period in the Legislative Session. I received this morning a letter that I think ought to be read to the Members of the Senate, because of the implications contained within the letter. This letter is postmarked State College, Pennsylvania, and is addressed to Senator Dent. I quote the letter:

"Dear Senator Dent:

"As a result of the opposition led by you against the state budget proposed by Governor Fine, the state does not have a budget for the coming year, leading directly to the situation outlined in the enclosed letter. I would urge that you bend every effort to draw up a compromise budget. As a lawmaker your prime responsibility is to the welfare of the people, not to a political party.

"I wish that you could spend several days on the campus of the Pennsylvania State College in order to see the hard diligent work that is in progress in every department, husbands leaving their wives to work far into the night, the extension workers traveling to all corners of the state in one of the most advanced extension services of any state university, and the almost continual holding of conferences for steel workers, dairy farmers, sewage workers, labor leaders, etc. Surely such earnest effort in this and other fields of state supported endeavor is worthy of solid backing in the State Legislature, and should not be made to feel insecure because of party strife in Harrisburg. Let us rise above petty wrangling and work out a budget program without delay.

"I think you for your consideration of these matters."

This letter is signed by an individual from State College.

This is the letter that it refers to. It is headed "The Pennsylvania State College—Inter-Office Correspondence."

"At its June meeting, the Board of Trustees of the College approved an increase in salary and/or promotion in rank for some members of the staff with the understanding that such adjustments would not be announced or become effective until the State Government appropriated to the College adequate funds for its operation during the 1951-53 biennium. Since there is now no way of knowing whether or when such funds will become available, this memorandum is being sent to all employees of the College for their information.

"Receipt of this memorandum does not imply pending change in either rank or salary for the reason to whom it is addressed. Those persons for whom changes in status are approved will be so notified at the earliest possible time. Meanwhile, each person is asked to continue to serve at the rank and salary in effect on June 30, 1951.

"I regret very much that conditions over which we have no control make this letter necessary."

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I also have a letter which I will not read, sent out by the President of Temple University to the alumnus of Temple University, in which excerpts from the speeches of the Governor are contained and a condemnation of the Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania is also contained. Specifically they mention Senator Walker and they also refer to your humble servant.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, there are many methods by which dictatorship comes to a country, to a state, to a community or to an enterprise. One of them is by the use of direct physical force, another is by use of indirect force through the medium of propaganda, through the medium of insinuations and through the medium of high pressure, unfounded misstatements.

Yes, the Senate of Pennsylvania has disagreed as to the tax program for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I will accept whatever blame may be contained in that simple statement. Speaking for the Minority Group, I wish to state that in Caucus assembled, twenty Democratic Senators have again proposed that they will not vote State sales tax. They, however, have again proposed that individually or as a group for a State income tax or a committee of this group is willing to sit down with the Majority Membership of the Senate, with a group from the House or with the Governor himself, anytime, to work out a program to meet the stated and required needs that can be proven over and above those already provided for by the program voted upon by this General Assembly. To date there has been no alternate program offered to the Members of the Senate. Therefore, any action that we can take would only be upon the income tax. The Members of the Senate, as represented by the Democratic Caucus, have repeatedly offered to sit down with any authoritative group to discuss a new tax program or a compromise tax program. As I understand it, the Governor takes the position that his hands are tied and that he can only accept the estimates given to him by his Budget Director.

Now, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, we find ourselves in this position, and if I am wrong I wish somebody would correct me. The Governor's Budget Director has stated that certain numbers of dollars are needed by the Commonwealth, that certain numbers of dollars are provided for in the tax program already passed. There are those on both sides of the Senate who disagree with the Governor's Budget Director. However, unless the Governor himself asks for a review of the budget figures and a revision of the revenue estimates, the Senate of Pennsylvania and the House find themselves with their hands tied. There is not a thing we can do about it. If the Governor insists that the figures submitted by Secretary Logan are the only figures upon which he will deal with this Legislature, then there is only one thing for the General Assembly to do and that is, under protest, accept his figures, and under his figures new revenues are needed, new or added revenues are needed. We can disagree from now until the end of the biennium, but unless the Governor himself asks for a revision of the figures there is not anything this General Assembly can do because the Governor has threatened that he will cut needed appropriations to tailor to the amounts that the Secretary of the Budget says are the proper amounts to be obtained by the revenue measures already passed.

That being the case, letters such as this going out over the Commonwealth are creating in the minds of thousands of persons who are directly or indirectly tied to the revenues of the Commonwealth, an impression is being created in these thousands of minds that a stubborn unqualified position by the Senate of Pennsylvania has placed in jeopardy needed increases for State employees, needed appropriations for the State-aided institutions.

Now, Mr. President, that is not the case. I have said many times and I repeat again today I disagree with Mr. Logan's figures, but I have not nor have I ever intimated that the Democratic Caucus is opposed to giving needed revenues to the Commonwealth to meet the required services in this Commonwealth. The history of the Senate proves that when a fact is proven to be such, we have always acted as Legislators, fully responsible to the people of this Commonwealth.

This letter sent out by the President of the College, I believe, was sent in good faith in order that these employees would not start spending an increase in pay that they did not have. However, the interpretation of the letter by those receiving it is contained in the letter of transmittal to me by this individual, and in that letter you can find that the whole blame for the stalemate at this moment is resting upon the shoulders of the Democratic Minority. This is not the case. We have offered time and time again, and stand ready at this moment, to sit down and discuss the needs of the Commonwealth and to provide the funds to meet whatever needs are not contained in the budget. However, I for one refuse to accept, on behalf of the Democratic Minority, any responsibility for any statement being made that the General Assembly and the Senate specifically is responsible for a stubborn opposition. It may be adamant, but not stubborn. I believe that on the other side of this Senate there are sufficient men of honest purpose who, if given an opportunity, would sit down and work out a reasonable program for the Commonwealth. These men who oppose an income tax do not oppose it for political reasons, and I say that sincerely. I know why I am opposed to an income tax and let me give you an illustration of exactly what is going to happen to an income tax, and if I am not here two years, four years or six years from now, let these words be resurrected and read them back in the Senate. I predict that if you pass an income tax at this Session, it will be doubled at the next Session, and when in 1960, your school needs will have reached $640,000,000 a biennium, the people of Pennsylvania will be paying two and one-half per cent income tax on top of all the other taxes now contained in the statute books of this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, this State must never get to the point that has been reached by one State in the Union. In that State, citizens find themselves in the position that if the new Federal tax program on income is put into effect, the citizens of that Commonwealth, reaching a certain amount of income, will have to earn one dollar and two cents to pay for every dollar of tax they will have to pay on their State and Federal income taxes. I think it was Chief Justice Marshall who said, "The power to tax is the power to destroy." I for one am not going to participate in any movement in the Senate of Pennsylvania or in this General Assembly to set into motion that kind of a tax program that has behind it the threat of destruction, and I repeat to the Membership of the Senate, when you go into your deliberations, that the Democratic Caucus has instructed me to tell you that not singly or collectively will the Democratic Senators vote for an income tax at this time, nor will they vote for a sales tax at this time.

Mr. President, we are right at the crossroads. We have reached the peak of prosperity in so far as it is measured by employment, in so far as it is measured by industrial income and individual income. Whatever measures are needed today may not be needed two years from now. If the spiral of inflation is still climbing heavenward by that time, we will have had two years in which to study a proposed program to change the entire tax structure of the State, and I offer to the Senate at this moment a three point program that I believe ought to be considered and, if possibly so, agreed upon within the next twenty-four hours, and the Members of the General Assembly decide upon a sine die adjournment date, meet the required needs of the Commonwealth and go home to their respective districts.

First, Mr. President, make an absolute survey of the direct needs of the Commonwealth; second, propose the additional revenues to meet any additional needs not contained within the prescribed budget as we know it today; and number three, give to the Joint State Government Commission the power and the authority to receive at the end of each month a detailed budget report from every commission and every department on the Hill under the Commonwealth, and that budget report be tallied against the budget specified for that department. Those are the three points upon which we can sit down with you and agree upon. I mention the last point for this reason; some of us have been here long enough to know how governments operate. All of us can be made out liars, because departments can spend over and above their budgets under the system that has grown up of creating deficiency appropriations. That, Mr. President, would be the saddest thing that could happen to the valiant efforts of this General Assembly to keep from the backs of the people of the Commonwealth an unneeded income tax. If we leave here and adjourn sine die without passing additional revenues, then the Legislature ought to recall any appropriations over and above the budget prescribed by the Governor. The Legislature cannot go home and leave on the Governor's desk millions of dollars of appropriation bills not covered by the anticipated revenue. It would be a fallacy on the part of any of us to believe that we could do that and not face the condemnation of the people of the Commonwealth, but by the same token, it is unfair for any individual or group of individuals to believe that they can bludgeon the Senators of Pennsylvania into passing any specific tax by this type of propaganda and pressure.

Mr. President, I repeat for the benefit of all, we are willing to sit down at any moment, with a group or in a committee of the whole, with all of the Senators, with any authoritative group from the House or with the Governor himself, to give to the people of Pennsylvania a program that will provide for the necessary expenditures of funds to give the required services to the people of the Commonwealth.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I do not want to detract from the words of wisdom of the Minority Leader. However, during this Session of the Legislature, especially on the question of taxes and on the budget, I have heard it said from time to time that new revenues were needed in all of the States, and that new taxes were needed to finance those new revenues. In that connection, I have made a survey of just what did happen in the other States, and I have a report here from almost all of the States, and I thought it would be timely right now to give you sort of a cross section of what did happen in the other States of the United States.

Mr. President, one of the questions in these questionnaires that I sent out requests the amount that was appropriated for civil defense, because there has been considerable argument here in the Legislature relative to the amount that is requested by the Governor, so that I am going to give you some of the information that I have on these questionnaires.

In Alabama, Alabama operates on a biennial basis. During the last biennium they appropriated $195,000,000 for the current biennium, with no new taxes and no increases in existing taxes. The amount appropriated for civilian defense was $100,000.

In Arizona, they operate on an annual basis. The amount of the appropriation for the last period was $33,135,778.79. The amount for the current period was reduced. It is $31,921,899.91. No new taxes, no increase in existing taxes. The amount appropriated for civilian defense is $275,000.

In Arkansas, they operate on an annual basis. The amount of the appropriations for the last period was $238,996,319. The amount for the current period is $263,232,812, and on the tax question, they say, "Have had a special Session as well as a regular Session, and the special Session refused to raise taxes; appropriations appeared in excess of anticipated revenues." There were no increases in the taxes already existing and they made no appropriation for civilian defense.

In California, they operate on an annual basis. The last period was $1,092,711,250. The current period is $1,016,883,000. No new taxes, no increase in existing taxes, and I have a special report on the amount appropriated for civilian defense. I think it is $13,000,000.

In Connecticut, they operate on a biennial basis. The last period was $184,000,000. This period, the current period, $241,000,000. There were no new taxes. The sales tax was increased from one per cent to two per cent. The amount appropriated for civilian defense was $1,904,594.

In Delaware, they operate on a biennial basis. The last period was $54,000,000. This period, $52,000,000. No new taxes, no increase in current taxes. The appropriation for civilian defense is $110,000.

In Florida, they did not indicate the amount of the appropriation for the last period, but for this period they appropriated $246,913,093. They reenacted the 1949 sales and use tax, and there was no increase in current taxes. They appropriated $36,000 for civilian defense.

In Georgia, the amount for the last period was $108,574,026. They operate on an annual basis. This period it was $108,574,026, with a $51,685,000 contingent fund. There they imposed a three per cent sales tax and they appropriated $200,000 for civil defense.

In Idaho they operate on a biennial basis. The last period was $46,275,543. The current period, $41,858,159. No new taxes except ton truck mileage tax for highways. The appropriation for civil defense was $1,000,000.

In Indiana, they operate on an annual basis. The last appropriation was $261,051,213. The current appropriation is $272,693,904. No new taxes, no increase in existing taxes. The appropriation for civil defense was $500,000.

In Kansas, they operate on a biennial basis. The last period was $66,722,578. For the current period, $63,026,151. No new taxes, no increase in existing taxes. The appropriation for civilian defense was—they have three figures down here—$20,000, $90,000 and $70,000.

At the request of the Majority Leader, I will not continue with these statistics, but they do indicate that in a very few States of the United States the appropriations have been increased to some extent, in some States, and in other States they have been reduced. In very few States have new taxes been levied, in very few States have the existing taxes been increased, and the appropriations for civil defense are very small in proportion to that in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I just want to say this, that in all the other States of the United States people do the same things we do in Pennsylvania. They eat the same things, they buy the same things, they work for a living, they wear the same kind of clothes and all that sort of thing. Therefore, I just cannot go along with the idea that you need the amount of new revenues that the Budget Director says we need here in Pennsylvania to the extent of imposing an income tax.

These questionnaires also indicate to me that in every state, in every state of the United States there is an orderly procedure for the preparation of the budget, and not the type of procedure that we have here in Pennsylvania, where figures appearing in the budget report are based on guess work instead of actual facts and research, and I certainly agree with the suggestions made by Senator Dent to solve this problem now before us in the Legislature.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Reverend Edgar C. Irwin, Guest Chaplain and Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Ford City, guest of the gentlemen from Armstrong, Messrs. Helm and Guthrie, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, protect we beseech Thee, and help us to protect by being worthy of it, this system of government under which we live.

So bless these Legislators that they may prove themselves before Thee and in the sight of men worthy of that place in this legislative body to which they have been elected. As the people of this state look to these men to enact the laws that from time to time conditions and contingencies of need seem to demand, wilt Thou inspire them with Thy divine guidance, so that what they do may be honorable in Thy sight and of best consequence to the people of this Commonwealth.

May these men be tall—sun-crowned—who are able to stand above the crowd in public duty and in private thinking, because they have first stood in Thy Divine Light. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Whereas, The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has already passed and the Governor has approved Civil Defense legislation designed to protect, help, aid and assist our people in time of invasion or war; and

Whereas, There are many organizations and persons operating in our midst with a design to weaken, divide, and destroy the purposes of free men; and

Whereas, It is the bounden duty of governments instituted, existing and maintained by free men to protect its people by seeking out and exposing those whose avowed and ultimate purpose is to destroy us; and

Whereas, The security of the Commonwealth can be seriously endangered by the unobstructed and unexposed operations and activities of such organizations and persons; and

Whereas, There is accumulating evidence of the existence, activity and growth of Un-American and subversive persons and groups operating in our society and body politic; therefore be it

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1071

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, July 19, 1951.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1071, Printer's No. 373, entitled "An Act to amend the title and Section 1 of the act approved the twelfth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. This bill is unnecessary; it is similar to Senate Bill No. 672, Act No. 192 of 1951, approved on June 30, 1951, except that Section 1 of this bill additionally provides that relocations of the right of way or easement may, from time to time, be made as shall be agreed upon between the company and the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor, and the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania Institution for Defective Delinquents.

For this reason, the bill is not approved.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1480, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897), entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis; requiring employers to keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; providing procedure and provisions with respect to eligibility for benefits and the amount thereof, by conferring upon the department the administrative details for the determination, payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation; providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies; creating certain special

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. LOPRESTI offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4), page 4, line 9, by inserting brackets before the word "of" and after the word "work" and inserting immediately thereafter the following: "during which there are four or more days (i) during which he performs no services for which remuneration is paid or payable to him and (ii) with respect to which no remuneration is paid or payable to him."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 4, line 11 by inserting after the word "rate" the following: "plus seven dollars."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 5, line 7, by inserting after the word "amount" the following: "plus seven dollars."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Lopresti, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LOPRESTI. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman to explain the amendments which he has just offered to House Bill 1480.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inquire if there are objections to the consideration of the amendments as a unit. The Chair notes that there are amendments to Section 1 and Section 15. Does the gentleman desire an explanation of amendments to both sections?

Mr. KENT. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, the amendments offered are offered by request and are commonly called "day base" amendments.

These amendments do the following thing: In order to qualify to receive benefits, where a man has worked part of a full week, he must earn an amount less than his weekly benefit rate plus $7. If he has earned less than his weekly benefit rate plus $7 and has worked under the following schedule, he receives the following proportionate amount of his weekly base pay. If he has worked only one day and after that one day he has earned less than the weekly benefit rate plus $7, he receives an amount equal to three-quarters of his weekly benefit check. If he has worked two days and has earned less than the weekly benefit rate plus $7 he receives a check in the amount of one-half of his benefit rate. If he has worked three days and still qualifies, he receives a check for one-fourth the amount. Substantially that is the purpose of these amendments.

In addition to this, I think one of the other amendments deals with the pension. The bill as it stands now provides that pension payments, where the employer has contributed to that particular amount, are deducted.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, do I understand then that the employe who is eligible for the maximum weekly benefit rate $28 under the bill, if he were to receive less than $35 in any employment during the week, and worked less than four days, that he would be eligible for compensation under the amendment?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, if he qualifies, yes. And the qualification, of course, is the weekly benefit rate plus $7. Then the benefit that he would get would depend on the number of days that he has worked according to the schedule.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the gentleman, if a person earned less than $35 in two days he would be eligible for compensation in the amount of $14.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, that is the amount; that is correct.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman aware of or familiar with the fact that there are compensation benefits for employes in Pennsylvania under our present law for partial unemployment?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I am.

Mr. KENT. Then, Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman what is the purpose of the amendments which he has presented.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the amendments is to change the manner in which the amount to be paid is determined.

Many of the employes and their representatives who are affected by the present bill would like to see the manner of computing the amount, or arriving at the amount of benefits be changed in accordance with the amendments offered, and that is the reason that I am offering them; not that I would benefit in any way because I am not employed.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further interrogate the gentleman and ask him if all the employes, all the wage earners in Pennsylvania would be benefited more under the day base plan as introduced or as included in the amendment over and above what they receive now under the present system?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, to that question I do not know the answer; but I do know that the representatives of the labor organizations who I presume represent their men upon the proper mandate, are agreed that this would be to their benefit.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, may I further interrogate the gentleman and ask him if he can give me any idea as to what portion of the wage earners of Pennsylvania would be benefited more under this amendment than they are under the present system, as set forth in 1480?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, they would not be deprived of any benefits which they would receive now or under the existing law. In some instances, under the new, they would receive increased benefits. So, inasmuch as no one is deprived of any of their present benefits, it can do no particular harm to any segment of labor.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman then that there are no wage earners in Pennsylvania who would be deprived of any of the benefits which they now receive under our present law? They would not be deprived of those benefits under the day base plan as contained in the amendment?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I could not see how.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose as strenuously as I can the amendments which have been offered to House Bill 1480, for several reasons.

In the first place, inaugurating what is known as the day base system in Pennsylvania—which is a system that bases unemployment compensation on the loss of days, rather than the system which we have in Pennsylvania, and which all other States have with the exception of New York—introduces a new theory, a new principle, a new philosophy, if you like, in the field of unemployment compensation. To me it goes far afield from the original intent that was contained in the original basic unemployment laws passed in Pennsylvania. Certainly it is a further step in social legislation, which I am not prepared to accept at this time.

I would like to point out that in the policy as stated in the preamble of the basic unemployment act, it is stated there that the purpose of the law is to set up a reserve whereby persons who become unemployed by no fault of their own can have some relief and some compensation for the loss of wages which they experience because of their unemployment and to tide them over and serve them as more or less of a buffer until they can secure other employment. As I say, this is an innovation, on the original theory, policy or philosophy of that bit of social legislation.

The other reason that I object to it, and it is a very obvious reason, one which I am sure all the Members will recognize in a few minutes when I point out to them a few figures.

The real reason is that under a day base plan and under a system as contained in the amendments which are before us now, a great percentage, and I say a vast majority, of the wage earners in Pennsylvania will not be benefited by this day base plan, but in fact, their benefits will be greatly decreased as compared to what they receive and will receive under our present system as contained in 1480.

I say that the day base plan is contained in this amendment is designed to benefit a comparatively small group of high wage earners whose work is not steady and is intermittent. There is no question that they will benefit a great deal from this type of thing to the detriment of many, many more smaller wage earners.

I recall in 1949, during the 1949 session, if the Members will indulge me for a moment, when this same question came before this House in a bill which was passed during that session which had to do with the employer's contribution raise. At that time the general idea, at least my idea—and I am sure that I share it with many other Members both here in this House and in the Senate—was we were not adequately equipped or did not have sufficient information at hand to know just what the day base plan was; what its effect would be on the employer, the employee or the unemployment compensation fund. As a result of that a study was made by the Joint State Government Commission on the subject of benefits for partial unemployment.

It was during that study at which time I served on the sub-committee that, at least, it first came to my knowledge that our present system, which is based on loss of wages, benefited a great many more wage earners in Pennsylvania than would be benefitted by the day base plan.

After an analysis with that thought in mind, that situation still prevails. I would like to give the Members of this House the benefit of an analysis which has been made, which is accurate, which has been worked out according to the tables and the unemployment compensation law as it is presently under House Bill 1480 as compared with the benefits which would be derived under this day base plan.

To begin with I would like to point out that on the best information I can obtain, the average weekly wage of the wage earner in Pennsylvania today, a very generous estimate, would be $60 a week for a five day week, or $12 a day. I say that is generous because I actually believe, and my personal opinion is that it is considerably less than that. I only take that for the purposes of illustration as a generous estimate of the average wage. As I say that amounts to $12 a day.

Also according to the best figures and the best information that I can derive from the experts, included in that group, and this is a conservative estimate, approximately sixty-two and a half percent of the wage earners of Pennsylvania, or approximately two-thirds of the wage earners are within the group of $60 a week or $12 a day. Now with that in mind I would like to point out this most significant fact.

Under our present system of benefits for partial unemployment in Pennsylvania which is based on loss of wages a person who earns less than $12 a day and works one day a week would receive $22 a week in unemployment compensation benefits. Whereas the very same individual under the day base plan as submitted and contained in this amendment would receive $21. Now understand that if you please, every person who earns less than $12 per day, take it all the way down to the minimum if you care of earning $2.77 a day, the benefits for those persons under our present law would range from a top of $22 a week in benefits to $10 a week for the lowest one that I mentioned who earned $2.77. The range if you please under the day base plan for that same group of employees of wage earners under the day base plan would be from $21 down to a minimum of $7.50 to that lowest person who earned $2.77. So the very minimum is even greater than he would receive under the day base plan.

When the statement is made that all of the wage earners in Pennsylvania will be benefited by a day base plan as contained in this amendment the facts and the truth do not bear out that statement. The facts are simply contrary and as I have said before the benefits will lie to the high bracketed wage earner, the men in the high clover if you wish, and he certainly is not the man who we, as representatives of all the wage earners and of all of the people of this Commonwealth, should be concerned about to the detriment of the much larger group in his same field.

For this reason I say, Mr. Speaker, that this is a vicious amendment to the unemployment compensation laws of Pennsylvania. I think that every Member in this House including minority Members as well as majority members can accept 1480 the way it is right now in its original form and feel safe in his conscience and in his heart that he has done something very valuable to the wage earners of Pennsylvania.

He can go further than that. He can feel secure in his conscience and also in his heart that if he votes against the day base plan that he is helping and benefiting a vast majority of the wage earners in Pennsylvania as against a comparatively small group of high bracketed wage earners in Pennsylvania.

An other significant fact that I would like to point out, Mr. Speaker, is that under this amendment a person can earn less than $35. In other words he can earn $34.99 in two days and he could then collect half a week's check or $14. But if a person is fully unemployed and has no work at all than he can only collect in benefits the maximum of $28.

I would like to ask, Mr. Speaker, whether that seems like a fair proposition and a fair distinction to make in any type of legislation.

I would like to say in conclusion that if the Members of this House want to do a real job for the wage earners in Pennsylvania, not only today but one that I am certain will probably be appreciated much more in the future, they will certainly vote against the amendments as offered by the gentleman from Cambria.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford Mr. Kent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KENT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Is the gentleman from Crawford Mr. Kent, familiar with the Railroad Unemployment Compensation Act, a Federal act?

Mr. KENT. No Mr. Speaker, I am not.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Does the gentleman know that the day base has been used under that Act for 1,500,000 railroad employes since 1944?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I do not know that as a fact although I believe at one time or another it was called to my attention.

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, so there is some place where we could receive information on how the Act would work on the day base plan? At least we have some experience with it.

Mr. KENT. Well who does the gentleman mean by "we"?

Mr. LOPRESTI. Well, Mr. Speaker, as a nation, under the Railroad Unemployment Compensation Act affecting 1,500,000 people, this sort of a plan has been used since 1944. Would not that be a basis for some experience?

Mr. KENT. I presume it would be, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOPRESTI. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Speaker, among the Apostles there was a Judas, but there was only one.

I am confronted today with the proposition where each and every one of the major labor organizations operating in the state of Pennsylvania, namely, the Railroad Brotherhood, the American Federation of Labor, the CIO, and United Mine Workers are all backing and sponsoring these particular amendments.

If we are to believe that these amendments are a detriment to the employes then we can arrive at only one conclusion and that is that each of these organizations in their own turn are a Judas to labor and the working man.

I do not believe that statement and therefore I urge the Members to support these amendments as being the amendments which the labor people themselves would like to have in the bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, in the debate by my friend Mr. Kent on the other side of the house he made some statements in regard to the lower brackets being deprived under the day base plan.

In my mind and I think in the minds of the Members here he did not make a very clear cut case. We did not say that all the people would be benefited by the day base plan. We said that those now under the act receiving less than $18 a day would not be deprived of the benefits that they are now receiving, and I think that we should stand on that.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I will have to disagree with the gentleman from Westmoreland because I made it a specific point to repeat a question of the gentleman from Cambria: If all of the wage earners, in his opinion, in Pennsylvania would be benefited by the day base plan as contained in the amendment.

I think the illustration was clear enough to the Members of the House to show just who will be benefited, who will not be benefited in the percentages of the employee group or wage earning group that will receive the benefit and those who will receive nothing but detriment.

There is one other point that was raised that I would like to make very clear, and that is in spite of the fact that the labor organizations, which were mentioned by the gentleman from Cambria, were in favor of the day base plan, there is nothing in my intention or my desire to hurt or take anything away from the wage earning group or the labor group in Pennsylvania.

I think the Republican organization not only now is attempting to benefit that group and not harm them but they did that very thing in 1949 when they strenuously opposed the day base plan which at that time, as offered, would have completely excluded a great number of the small wage earners in Pennsylvania from any benefits which they ordinarily would have received.

I want to say again that I think every Member in this House can do a real job for the wage earner and for the laboring group in Pennsylvania, and do a much greater job by defeating these amendments and passing 1480 as it stands.

Mr. TOLL. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford Mr. Kent permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KENT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, in any industry of some size would it not be possible for the employers to employ their people on a basis of three days a week where the pay is not more than $35 without paying them anything under this law for the remaining two days?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I do not quite understand the question. Would the gentleman repeat it?

Mr. TOLL. The question is, where an industry employs people for not more than three days a week and the pay is $35 do these people receive anything under 1480?

Mr. KENT. No.

Mr. TOLL. Therefore if any large industry decided to employ their men on a basis of not more than three days a week, and they earn $35, they get nothing under the present bill?

Mr. KENT. Under the present system, if they earn more than their weekly benefit rate plus an incentive feature of $5 then they are not eligible under the present law. I would like to elaborate that they would get nothing under the day base either.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that under the day base plan where an employer keeps his men working three days a week and they earn less than $35 they would get $14?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, if they work three days a week and earn less than $35 they would be eligible to $7.

Mr. TOLL. But they would be eligible for benefits whereas under the bill without the amendments they would get nothing, is not that correct, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. KENT. That is correct, yes.

Mr. TOLL. Therefore any large industry in the State is benefiting by the laws that now exist, is not that correct, where they are able to plan three days a week for their men.

Mr. KENT. Well I could not answer that Mr. Speaker, because I do not know what their wages are.

Mr. TOLL. Assuming that the wage is $35.

Mr. KENT. For three days work?

Mr. TOLL. For three days. They are able to keep the men working three days a week and limit them to that amount under the present law and under the laws provided in 1480 without the amendments, is not that true?

Mr. KENT. That is right. They would not receive anything under the amendments either.

Mr. TOLL. Now under the amendments and the day base plan if they earn less than $35 they would get paid under the benefits as provided by the day base plan.

Mr. KENT. That is right and they would receive benefits under the present plan if what they did receive during those three days was less than their benefit rate less the incentive of $5.

Mr. TOLL. Is it not true that the amendments, Mr. Speaker, eliminate the possibility of the employers in any industry from limiting their employes to the amount which they can earn and the figure mentioned on the three day basis, and which could be carried over a large period of time.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I would say the exact opposite would be true. The incentive of the employer would be to employ him for four days for possibly a couple hours a day and pay him $2 and then he would not be eligible under the day base plan at all.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that the day base plan eliminates any possible arrangements made by an industry where the employers could keep their people working three days without the benefits?

Mr. KENT. Absolutely not, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Lovett and Mr. Petrosky and were as follows:

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Lovett, Petrosky and Westrick.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will receive amendments from the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent, to Section 15. The Chair hears no objection to that procedure.

The fifteenth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Amend Sec. 15, (Sec. 404), page 48, line 17, by striking out the words "or more" and inserting in lieu thereof: "—712."

Amend Sec. 15, (Sec. 404), page 48, by inserting immediately after line 17 the following:

Amend Sec. 15 (Sec. 404), page 41, line 11, by inserting underscoring under the words "which does not exceed."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Crawford please explain the tenor of his amendments.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, the amendments which were just offered raise the maximum weekly benefit from $28 as originally contained in House Bill 1480 to $30 per week.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, obviously this amendment calls for unanimous support on the part of the membership of the House.

There have been some hasty and irresponsible statements made in connection with this bill. We were told that if the day base plan was integrated into this bill the measure would be slaughtered. Then we are advised by various persons interested that if the day base plan did not go into the bill that it ought to be opposed.

Statements of that kind I presume are inevitable at times like these. I cannot say that personally I greatly regret the failure to incorporate the day base plan in this measure. It was a measure however, that had the unanimous support of my caucus and I was directed by my caucus to support it.

I am now asking the membership on this side of the House to support the pending amendments because I believe they are at least a step in the right direction.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now return to Section 1 of the bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. KENT offered the following amendment.

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 5, line 7, by striking out the word "his" and inserting in lieu thereof the following "the maximum."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4), page 4, line 4, by inserting after the word "an" where it appears the second time in said line, the following "individual."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 9, line 6, by inserting after the word "annuities" the following "or."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am always somewhat suspicious of correctional amendments because it is so easy in formulating amendments to change the tenor of the bill, and I would suggest that the gentleman from Crawford go over his correctional amendments for the information of the House pointing out in each instance what he proposes doing.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I can assure the gentleman, the Minority Leader—I provided him with a copy of these amendments yesterday—that in the great part the amendments are correctional in that they correct Printer's errors in the bill.

However, in one instance they do amend a section in a substantive way, and that is on page 38.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, pink bill or white bill?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, well I have the pink bill. I think it is the same in the white one.

A new part was added in 1480 which went to the eligibility requirements of an employe to qualify for compensation. That new part read as follows:

In determining whether or not an employe is available for work within the meaning of this subsection the department shall consider insofar as applicable whether or not the employe is in good faith making a reasonable effort to secure suitable work on his own initiative.

Under the amendments which I have offered that new part is being deleted at the request of the labor people who are interested.

The other amendment which might be classified as changing a substantive part of the bill deals with section 4, page 14, lines 1 and 2. Starting on page 13, in the section marked 208.1 dealing with Civil Service appointment of personnel. Under the bill as drafted some question arose as to just what classification of person was included in the new part of that section.

In order to overcome any objection and to clarify it the amendment strikes out, or specifically states that those people who are to be covered by Civil Service under this act do not include anyone in the classified service of the Civil Service and it only can apply to unclassified personnel.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, what is the tenor and import of Section 208.1 of that section? What is the purpose of it?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of that section is to cover approximately, my information is, five or six persons who are now in the bureau and are unclassified so far as Civil Service is concerned. This will put those unclassified persons under Civil Service, and the reason as I understand and am informed, is that one of the requirements of conformity under the federal act to which we must conform is that personnel be under Civil Service and that is what we are attempting to do.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is not the purpose of this bill to freeze in the department, persons who have not qualified as the result of Civil Service tests?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, that is not the purpose because the only persons to whom this will apply are persons who are unclassified for Civil Service.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, has this measure been taken up with the Federal authorities as to their construction? Is not the gentleman familiar with a case, I think in Oregon, where something similar to this was attempted, and the employers were not given credit on their Federal payments for the payments they had made in that state because of a failure to comply with the Civil Service requirements under Federal Social Security? Are not we endangering by this clause the contributions made by the employers of this state for the sake of three or four or five or six people? Are we taking a calculated risk or do we know what we are doing?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, it is difficult to answer so many questions at once but in answer to your first question, I have no information whether or not it has been taken up with the Federal authorities.

My answer to the balance is that I am not familiar with the situation, I believe you stated, in Oregon.

In answer to the rest of the gentleman's remarks I would say that the purpose of this is to do just the contrary to what the gentleman has stated, and to state that there is a threat that funds may be withheld or credits deprived to our Pennsylvania employers if the persons in the bureau are not in Civil Service.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would the integrity of this bill be in any way impaired if Section 208.1 were eliminated from the bill and the purpose carried in a separate bill?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I believe it could be done that way, yes. I do not see any point to it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is it not a safer procedure. Then you could find out and report to the House whether this was agreeable to the Federal authorities and whether it impaired the credits of Pennsylvania employers.

I do not intend to make a point of it, or to move the elimination of this clause, but I point out to the membership of the House that it is at best a calculated risk, and does not deserve and should not have been accorded a place in a measure of this kind.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, my only reply to that would be that the fact that it is in the bill now and was not for some reason acceptable to the Federal authorities. But it would have no effect on the balance of the bill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman would have the time to find out whether it was acceptable to the Federal authorities and would not impair the credits of your Pennsylvania employers. We have reached a pretty pass if we are going to pass legislation to freeze a particular group into the state service and use this kind of a bill to do it.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, in further reply to the gentleman I have just now been informed that the Secretary, Mr. Walker, has contacted or has had communication with the Federal authorities and there is no risk involved.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, very well, glad to have that on the record.

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1441, entitled:

An Act to further amend clauses (a), (c) and (d) of section three hundred six and section four hundred ten of the act, approved the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736), entitled, as amended "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employee in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; and prescribing penalties," by increasing maximum and minimum rates and deleting the limitation of number of weeks and aggregate of compensation for total disability and changing procedure.

The first section was read and agreed to.

Mr. DOWLING offered the following amendments:

Amend the bill, page 8, by inserting between lines 8 and 9, the following:

6. If there be neither widow, widower, children nor dependent parent, entitled to compensation, then to the brothers and sisters, if actually dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of his death, fifteen per centum of wages for one brother or sister, and five per centum additional for each additional brother or sister, with a maximum of twenty-five per centum, such compensation to be paid to their guardian, or, if there be no guardian to such other person as may be designated by the board, as hereinafter provided.

No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower, unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for support. If members of decedent's household at the time of his death, the terms "child" and "children" shall include step-children, adopted children, and children to whom he stood in loco parentis, and shall include posthumous children. Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or remarry, or should the widower become capable of self-support, the right of such dependent or widower to compensation under this section shall cease: Provided, however, That upon remarriage of any widow, the compensation of such widow shall continue as hereinbefore provided for one-third of the period during which compensation then remains payable to her: Provided further, That if, upon investigation and hearing, it shall be ascertained that the widow or widower is living with a man or woman, as the case may be, in meretricious relationship and not married, or the widow living a life of prostitution, the board may order the termination of compensation payable to such widow or widower. If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall, for any cause, cease, the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased.

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed [thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents] forty-five dollars per week, nor be less than [twenty-one dollars and twenty-five] twenty-five dollars and fifty cents per week.

This compensation shall be paid during three hundred weeks, and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section, the compensation of each child shall continue, after said period of three hundred weeks, until such child reaches the age of sixteen, at the rate of seventeen and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [five dollars and seventy-five cents] seven dollars per week, if there is one child; twenty-seven and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [eight dollars and seventy-five] ten dollars and fifty cents per week, if there are two children; thirty-eight and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [twelve dollars and fifty cents] fifteen dollars per week, if there are three children; fifty per centum of wages, but not in excess of [sixteen dollars and twenty-five] nineteen dollars and fifty cents per week, if there are four children; fifty-five per centum of wages, but not in excess of [seventeen dollars and fifty cents] twenty dollars per week, if there are five children; and sixty per centum of wages, but not in excess of twenty-four dollars per week, if there are six children or more.

The board may, if the best interest of a child or children shall so require, at any time order and direct the compensation payable to a child or children, or to a widow or a widower on account of any child or children, to be paid to the guardian of such child or children, or, if there be no guardian, to such other person as the board, as hereinafter provided, may direct. If there be no guardian or committee of any minor, dependent, or insane employe, or dependent, on whose account compensation is payable, the amount payable on account of such minor, dependent, or insane employe, or dependent may be paid to any surviving parent, or to such other person as the board may order and direct, and the board may require any person, other than a guardian or committee, to whom it has directed compensation, for a minor, dependent, or insane employe, or dependent to be paid, to render, as and when it shall so order, accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person, and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the moneys received by such person

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1442, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and dean of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation and prescribing penalties," by increasing maximum and minimum rates and total amounts and aggregate of compensation and changing time for mailing medical report.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WACHHAUS offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the following "Clause (a)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "Clauses (a) (e)."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 301), page 4, by inserting between lines 9 and 10 the following:

"(e) Compensation shall not be payable for partial disability due to silicosis, anthraco-silicosis, or asbestosis. Compensation shall be payable, as otherwise provided in this act, for total disability or death caused [solely (as definitely distinguished from a contributory or accelerating cause)] by silicosis, anthraco-silicosis, or asbestosis or by silicosis anthraco-silicosis, or asbestosis, when accompanied by active pulmonary tuberculosis."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill concerning the purpose of the amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Wachhaus.

Mr. WACHHAUS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to explain as best I can the purpose of the amendments. To most of the membership of the House, I will say that it would be rather difficult perhaps to understand some of the problems that we have particularly in the anthracite region.

People do not generally come in contact with the men who work in underground mining, who contract occupational diseases, commonly known to us throughout the anthracite region, at least, as miner's asthma, more viciously known as silicosis, anthraco-silicosis, and asbestosis. So, I shall refer to it merely as miner's asthma cases, rather than repeating the cumbersome titles that they usually go by.

The amendment, as I have presented it, seeks to amend Section 1, Section 301 of the Act on page 4, inserting between lines 9 and 10,—if anyone desires to follow—inserting Subsection E which is in the original act, but is not contained in this particular bill.

The words I desire to delete are these, and I will try to read them here from my own Braille notes that I have: "Solely and definitely distinguished from a contributory or accelerating cause." That is all, Mr. Speaker.

The word that I am particularly interested in is the word "solely." It is this word "solely" that makes it impossible practically for a miner who has contracted any of the so-called miner's asthma diseases to collect compensation once he has become totally disabled or after he dies. Cases might be brought before the courts. They are tried, but once the man is dead it is practically impossible for his family to collect any sort of compensation, even though it is commonly known and understood that the man died of a disease contracted in the work that he was doing for a period of thirty-five or forty years.

The amendment with the deletion will read as follows:

Compensation shall be payable or otherwise provided in this act for total disability or death caused by silicosis, anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis, or by silicosis, anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis when accompanied by active pulmonary tuberculosis."

In other words, reduced to common English, if a man contracts the disease known as miner's asthma, it becomes so difficult for him to breathe because of the fact that his lungs are clogged up with coal dust and stone dust that it really becomes impossible, thereby affecting the heart. And the fact that the heart is then affected, he practically always has a heart condition accompanying his miner's asthma.

So, Mr. Speaker, eliminating this word "solely" we can make it possible for any of these men to sue for compensation, and perhaps be in a better position to win the case should it be brought before the courts.

So, I am asking. Mr. Speaker with this explanation for the Members of the House on both sides to give me whatever support they can, and let us add this small thing to the act that the miners so deservedly need.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the gentleman from Schuylkill for the explanation he has given the House.

I wish now to speak against the amendment that has been offered.

The Occupational Disease Act in the state of Pennsylvania is approximately 12 to 13 years of age. The question that is raised in this amendment whether or not we will delete the word "solely", opens the door to all types of diseases which may flow from silicosis of anthracosis, and will practically give health insurance to a great many people rather than to preserve the fundamental concept of workmen's compensation.

Workmen's compensation and compensation for occupational disease have been long needed in this Commonwealth. The question that is raised in the amendment can be very easily handled and is handled in a number of instances by medical testimony. If a doctor, a specialist, were to testify that a man's total disability or his death resulted solely from silicosis, regardless of whether or not he might have another part of his body affected, he would still receive, as they are receiving in the Commonwealth today, compensation for this type of case.

Not long ago the Superior Court of this Commonwealth interpreted the word "solely." The interpretation that it placed upon that word was not the limited definition of the word, but it also today would permit the recovery of compensation for total disability or death if either resulted solely from what the Legislature originally intended to provide compensation for, those exposed to occupational diseases.

While it is true there is a large segment of the industry in Pennsylvania, especially the anthracite and bituminous and steel industry that are affected by occupational disease, it is felt that by excluding this word "solely" and opening the door to every type of disability that could manifest itself in a man working in those industries would certainly put an undue hardship upon the industry in Pennsylvania.

Further, when the original occupational disease act was before the courts there was considerable concern by the courts as to how far we could go with this type of legislation before we would destroy the very industries that have contributed so much to this Commonwealth, namely the heavy industries that I have described, where these hazards are the most prevalent.

Under the Workmen's Compensation Act, which is an Companion Act to this, certainly if a man is injured in the course of his employment and contracts some disease following the injury and dies of a disease in no way related to the accident, it would be an unfair burden to place upon industry. Likewise, with respect to occupational disease, if a person dies of a kidney disease or tuberculosis or a heart condition, certainly industry should not be penalized for any of those natural causes with which the human race is confronted.

I ask both sides of this House to vote down the amendment that has been offered by the gentleman from Schuylkill.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, how glad I am that the distinguished gentleman from Dauphin was nominated for district attorney rather than for judge.

It is about time that this Legislature began telling the court and the people what it means and what it intends, in language that the courts and the doctors can understand.

If you are dead, you are dead. All diseases arising directly from occupations should be compensable. All of these long names that the gentleman from Schuylkill read are the names I presume of diseases flowing from silicosis, the primary cause, and it is perfectly proper to trace a disease to its course, and if the source is silicosis then we have a right to say it is compensable.

The fine words of the gentleman from Dauphin are of little value to the widow or the orphan or the miner suffering from an incurable malady, and I sincerely hope that all the Members of the House, with the exception possibly of the gentleman from Dauphin, vote for this amendment.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to take just a minute to say a word in favor of this amendment.

Some ten or twelve years ago or less I had occasion to represent an old Polish man who had worked in a foundry in Berks County for many years.

He had been inhaling silica dust, and when the Occupational Disease Act was passed, I think in 1937, it was not long after that that he was unable to work at all. He brought claim under the act for compensation and it was very thoroughly fought by the company which had employed him, or the insurance carrier. To the credit of the Workmen's Compensation referees and the manner in which they were interpreting the law and applying it, this gentleman won his case and received disability compensation for a short period, at which time he died. And then his family got the death claim paid to them.

But I recall at that time of the questions raised was that this man was suffering from what they call emphysema of the lungs as though that were something that was entirely disassociated from his occupation as a molder at which he had been employed for many years.

It seems to me that with this word left in the law, in a disability caused by silicosis or these other diseases brings the matter down to medical testimony. In other words, if the doctors say this man's death or disability has been caused by this disease, what difference does it make whether he has had a heart attack on perhaps the last day of his life? Certainly the testimony would indicate whether this disease had brought about the heart attack. I do not see that the word "solely" does anything but prolong the means of defeating an honest claim for a disability or death due to one of these occupational disease.

Certainly there is no going to be at the end a burden thrown on the fund created to take care of these men by taking out this word "solely." Because in my opinion, just as has been voiced by the Minority Floor Leader a minute ago and was well said by Mr. Wachhaus, if a man contracts one of these diseases and it breaks down his system in other parts, his lungs or his heart, he certainly should be entitled to compensation just as though the disease itself were the only cause of his disability or his death.

We should close this avenue of escape on the part of the industry which must bear the burden. If we want to protect men from disability and death caused by occupational diseases then we should vote for this amendment today.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I happen to have had some considerable experience in the city of Philadelphia in practicing law in the field of occupational diseases involving silicosis.

I want to elaborate on the various industries that are involved besides miner's asthma. In the city of Philadelphia we have had one case in which I represented the claimant who was ashcart driver, and it was found after putting in a great number of years' collecting ashes that he suffered from silicosis.

We have also had cases involving founders, men who work in foundries. In one case a hat powderer who put the powder on the hat, and over a period of thirty years contracted silicosis. Stone workers, people who use tools in making letters on stone. Steel workers—silica is contained and found in a great many places. It is found in our subways; when the subway trains go over the steel they cause silica to float in the air, but not in such large quantities that it gives the person who uses the subway silicosis.

There are a great many people in Pennsylvania who acquire silicosis over the period of years, and particularly the asbestos workers, who insulate pipes. The people out in Chester, the Sun Ship uses asbestos, and when they are confined they contract silicosis.

Now the history of silicosis in Pennsylvania is this. In 1937 when the Industrial Disease Act was first passed the word which was in the act was primarily not "solely". This word "solely" did not get into the Industrial Disease Act until 1939, and it has raised havoc in cases of workmen who have been trying to collect; so much so that in the last ten cases we have had to have six autopsies in order to establish whether a man had silicosis or not. When he was cut open and the masses taken from his lungs then we saw that he really had silicosis because by use of the photograph, the X-ray, the doctors on both sides had the problem of acclaiming which shadow showed tuberculosis and which shadow showed silicosis. And there is reasonable room for argument, no matter how good X-ray experts are, for one man to say that the shadows that he sees in the X-ray are tuberculosis instead of silicosis. So the physicians go into various definements. Some of them say if the heart is pushed over to one side it shows that it is silicosis. Others say if the heart is pushed over to the other side it is heart disease.

They go into questions such as described by my friend Mr. Readinger, from Reading concerning the emphysema. They go into questions concerning nodules. They sit hours in the conversation room trying to decide where are the nodules. Are there holes at the top or holes at the bottom? All trying to determine whether the man had silicosis, by reason of the difficulty imposed upon this claimant by this word "solely." It has been the greatest mischief maker in the Industrial Disease law.

Incidentally, I introduced a bill, House Bill 69 which never got out of committee for this one word alone. I am asking that this Legislature reinstate the word. "Primarily" was bad enough, because in "primarily" it was a proposition of showing that the disease silicosis primarily disabled the worker. In every one of those cases it is either accompanied by tuberculosis or heart disease or by something else.

When the man finally dies his doctors usually certifies the primary cause and he puts down heart disease. The thing that actually killed him, even though in an autopsy you can show or you can see that silicosis did the job.

I call your attention to the fact, and the layers who are in this room can read the cases, that as recently as two or three years ago some of the testimony by physicians testifying in silicosis cases where the word "solely" was important have been sort of disregarded by our Superior Court on their interpretations, because the Superior Court said they did not understand the burden which was placed upon the claimant.

Now is your chance, and I am glad that Representative Wachhaus introduced this because I did not know about it until today sitting here.

Now is your chance to redeem the claims of these workers. Not merely in the anthracite regions, not for the coal-workers, but foundry workers hat workers, steel-workers, stone workers, people of the Commonwealth who are entitled to compensation. Give them an opportunity to get compensation by getting this troublesome word out of the act. The word "solely" should be removed.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, in favoring this amendment I wish to read to the House a letter which I received under date of July 6th 1951 which reads as follows:

Dear Sir:

I am writing you about a very great injustice done my husband, who is dying from silicosis.

He worked for the McConway Torley Co. in a silica hazard for a number of years. The company knew it and the compensation authorities knew about it. His attending doctor, a specialist in lung work, testified that my husband was permanently and totally disabled from silicosis as did two other lung specialists. The company asked one doctor what he suffered from and he said tuberculosis but was not sure whether or not it was silicosis. A Medical Board that is now set up by the Governor, of which one of the members I know is an old company doctor and not a specialist in lung conditions, found that my husband did not suffer from silicosis. This is a rank injustice.

With this kind of treatment by the Republican party, is it any wonder that the workingman will not vote for them.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. Joseph Marcyanis.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, with respect to the amendment that has been offered, I have tried many cases—and I am not going to take the time of this House—many cases in the early development of silicosis and anthracosilicosis. I have found that with medical testimony, and the proper kind of medical testimony that will measure up to proof in the courts, the awards have been made on the very basis of this word "solely." Doctors have testified that death was the result solely of silicosis. That is the intent of the Legislature or was the intent in 1939. It is still the law of this Commonwealth. I think the entire matter can be handled with medical testimony, and I ask the Members of this House to vote down this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were agreed to.

(During the verification of the roll)

Mr. SHOTWELL. Mr. Speaker, I heard my name called on the negative roll. I wish that to be corrected to the affirmative roll.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's name will be stricken from the negative roll.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman's name appear on the affirmative roll?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's name does appear on the affirmative roll.

Mr. PETROSKY. I definitely heard the gentleman vote in the affirmative. If the gentleman desires to so recorded, we would have no objection on this side of the House.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its unanimous consent for the gentleman to be recorded on the affirmative roll? Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and the gentleman will be recorded on the affirmative roll.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

It was agreed to.

Mr. PETROSKY offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend the bill, page 10, by inserting after line 19, the following:

Section 3. Section 401 of said act, as amended by the act approved the twelfth day of June, one thousand nine hundred forty-one (P. L. 125) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 401. The term "employer" when used in this article shall mean the employer as defined in article one of this act or his duly authorized agent or his insurer, if such insurer has assumed the employer's liability or the State Workmen's Insurance Fund of this Commonwealth if the employer be insured therein.

The department shall be deemed a "party in interest" in any proceeding under this article before a referee, the board or any court involving any claim for compensation, a part of which is payable by the Commonwealth under the provisions of this act.

[The term "medical board" shall mean a medical board constituted as provided in section four hundred and two.]

Section 4. Section 402 of said act, as amended by the act, approved the fourteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1379) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 402. [(a) The Governor shall request each dean of legally recognized medical schools in Pennsylvania to submit the names of three physicians, including a roentgenologist and a pathologist whom they consider especially qualified by training or experience for membership on the medical board.

(b) From the names submitted in accordance with subsection (a), the Governor shall select and appoint a medical board of three members, including a roentgenologist and a pathologist. The members of the medical board shall serve without term and each shall receive for his entire services, a salary at the rate of eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8500) per annum, except the chairman who so designated by the Governor, shall receive a salary at the rate of nine thousand dollars ($9000) per annum. Their compensation and necessary traveling expenses shall be paid out of the appropriation to the department for the administration of this act.

(c) In the event of a vacancy, the Governor shall select the appointee from a new list to be submitted by the deans in accordance with the provisions of subsection (a).

(d) The [medical] board shall have the power and its duty shall be to hear and determine controverted medical issues in cases arising under this act in accordance with the provisions of section 420 and its reports and findings shall be conclusive except that upon appeal to the courts, the courts may inquire into the question whether the findings were based upon sufficient competent evidence.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, apparently when we are all in agreement we find ourselves in a state of confusion, and then end up by not being in agreement.

The amendment that I have offered to House Bill 1442 eliminates the medical board and places its powers and duties upon the Workmen's Compensation Board.

There is no necessity for the medical board as it is operating at the present time under the Workmen's Compensation Board. The medical board itself hires out a medical examiner to examine the injured claimant, the man afflicted with an occupational disease, and after getting the report tenders that report to the board.

In many instances the medical board does not even call before the board the man afflicted with an occupational disease to see his condition, and of course makes an arbitrary decision upon the matter without surveying it at first hand.

Now I want to say to the membership of both sides of the House, the Governor's office apparently is in complete agreement with taking out the medical board from under the Workmen's Compensation Board, and I cannot understand the opposition at the last moment. We have had an expressed positive statement from the Governor's office that he would go along with this. Evidently some things have changed that decision at the last minute. Are we to sit here and legislate, or are we to be tendered decisions by outsiders who are not in the legislative halls, or any executive branch of the Government, and act in their accord rather than with the dictates of our conscience here upon these amendments?

I am asking both sides of the House to support the majority leadership, and the minority party as well, in the support of this amendment to take the medical board out from under the Workmen's Compensation Board.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Westmoreland County, Mr. Petrosky.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Petrosky, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PETROSKY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, when did the medical board come into existence?

Mr. PETROSKY. I believe it was the first of the year, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, do you know how many cases the medical board has had referred to it?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I do not have the exact information before me. However, if you would choose to put the legislation over until a later date, I will be able to procure that information from the board, I assume.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Westmoreland know how many men constitute this board?

Mr. PETROSKY. Three members, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Westmoreland know where these men come from?

Mr. PETROSKY. I believe the Governor requests each dean of the legally recognized medical schools of Pennsylvania to submit the names of three people.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman offering the amendments tell us the purpose of the medical board?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, the purpose of the medical board and what they have actually done is entirely a different matter. As I stated earlier they should review these reports and have the afflicted applicant for occupational disease compensation come before them. However, this has not been done in many instances.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the gentleman from Westmoreland County.

The inference at least was made by the gentleman from Westmoreland County that someone had been in touch with the Members on this side of the House concerning the elimination of this board. I can assure the Members of this House that I have not had anyone in touch with me concerning the elimination of this board.

I did have the opportunity this afternoon, within the past few hours, of speaking to Chairman Noll of the Workmen's Compensation Board, a highly efficient public official, who has told me that the medical board has been in operation only since January of this year; that in his opinion the board certainly has a definite function.

Cases are referred to the board, complex questions involving medical testimony, and the men who have been appointed to this board from the medical schools resident in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania are reviewing these records and are assisting the members of the board.

I certainly feel that any means we can use today to facilitate the handling of Workmen's Compensation cases both before the referees and before the Workmen's Compensation Board for the proper determination of the interests of all the parties, will benefit both the injured claimant and the employer. We should certainly give it a fairer trial than to rip the board out of existence before it has had an opportunity to properly function and before we have had an opportunity to determine its real value.

I ask all the Members of this House to vote against the amendment that has been introduced by the gentleman from Westmoreland.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I have had one experience with this board since it began to function in January.

First let me call your attention to the fact that although the Act provides for a board, and this Act has been in force for many years, no Governor undertook to appoint the board until the present Governor, so that the Act was administered for many years without the benefit of the board that now seems to be so vital.

Secondly let me tell you that one of the Members of the present board has appeared in cases as an X-ray specialist for employers.

I do not know of any provision of the Act which prohibits the members of the board from appearing in private cases—third let me call your attention to a case, an anthracosis case that arose in the city of Chester. That case was first disallowed by the referee and then was reversed by the former Chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board, the late Daniel Murphy of Philadelphia, who served as Chairman of the Workmen's Compensation Board until his death, I believe for nine years. It was sent back to the referee, who took additional testimony, and once more was appealed after the referee turned it down. And for the second time the late Chairman Daniel Murphy reversed the case, and sent it back for additional testimony on this premise, how could a man work for thirty years in the asbestos industry—he was putting asbestos around pipes in the shipyard—and yet not have asbestosis, because the medical experts testified for the employer that this particular employe had tuberculosis only. His sputum was negative; the tests were negative. But they contended that he had asbestosis, which is a form of the silica hazard.

The third time the case came up before the referee and once more was turned down after listening to the physician who is employed by the Bureau of Industrial Hygiene; I think he called a medical director of the Bureau of Industrial Hygiene in Harrisburg here, who comes to Philadelphia to testify. He testified once more that this man did not have asbestosis, and it was at that point that Commissioner Murphy had passed away.

The case was referred to this new medical board which never had it before, after the case had been pending four, five years and then they unanimously said that the man had tuberculosis. They did not examine the man, they just examined the record, and I suppose they took into consideration thirty years of exposure and they said the man had tuberculosis. Then on the question of taking an appeal to the common pleas court, by that time in the case the decision of this board is so confused that you practically have no chance for a reversal once they have entered a decision.

I think that the creation of the board, that the appearance of the board in this type of case is another hazard for the employe, and I think you ought to pass the amendment to cut the board out of this bill.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOLL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has said that there is no appeal from the decision of the medical board. I wish to ask the gentleman whether it is not a fact that it is an administrative agency, and there is an appeal from the board's decision to the Common Pleas Court for Philadelphia County?

Mr. TOLL. Not on a medical question, Mr. Speaker.

The decisions hold—and I examined them as late as a month ago—that the findings of the medical board are conclusive, and as to your argument that the common pleas court will deal with legal questions only, they support the findings of the examiners who examined the workmen, and their findings are conclusive, and the case is over so far as the medical testimony is concerned. That is a very, very strong feature of the Act.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the Workmen's Compensation Board has to base its findings upon competent evidence to support findings of fact?

Mr. TOLL. That is true, Mr. Speaker, but the Board said in that particular case that they were bound by the opinion of the board, on a medical question, that is.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, the findings of fact are the ones that you appeal from if there is competent evidence to support them. Is that not a fact?

Mr. TOLL. That is true ordinarily, Mr. Speaker, before the entrance of the board into the field of Workmen's Compensation Law—

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, the entrance of what—

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, I mean this board that you are referring to that is now in the Act, the Medical Board, consisting of the three experts from the three colleges.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the learned gentleman from the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. TOLL. Mr. Speaker, you are welcome, sir.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I reiterate, with due respect to my learned friend from the city of Philadelphia, he has one isolated situation, one case.

I believe that this House, before tearing out and ripping out this board, should give it careful consideration, and certainly should have more than one case upon which to act. Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I ask the members of this House to give this board an opportunity and have the operations of the board observed over a longer period of time than seven or eight months before we tear it out.

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. DOWLING offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2, page 9, by inserting between lines 16 and 17, the following:

Section 307. In case of death resulting from occupational disease, compensation shall be computed on the following basis and distributed to the following persons, subject to the limitations of section 301.

1. If there be no widow nor widower entitled to compensation, compensation shall be paid to the guardian of the child or children, or, if there be no guardian, to such other persons as may be designated by the board as hereinafter provided, as follows:

(a) If there be one child, twenty-five per centum of wages of deceased, but not in excess of [eight dollars and seventy-five cents] ten dollars and fifty cents per week.

(b) If there be two children, thirty-five per centum of wages of deceased, but not in excess of [twelve dollars and fifty cents] fifteen dollars per week.

(c) If there be three children forty-five per centum of wages of deceased, but not in excess of [sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents] nineteen dollars and fifty cents per week.

(d) If there be four children, fifty-five per centum of wages of deceased, but not in excess of [twenty] twenty-four dollars per week.

(e) If there be five children, sixty-two and one-half per centum of wages of deceased, but not in excess of [twenty-two dollars and fifty cents] twenty-seven dollars per week.

(f) If there be six or more children, sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of wages of deceased, but not in excess of [twenty-five] thirty dollars per week.

2. To the widow or widower, if there be no children, forty-four per centum of wages, but not in excess of [fifteen] eighteen dollars per week.

3. To the widow or widower, if there be one child, fifty-three per centum of wages, but not in excess of [eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents] twenty-two dollars and fifty cents per week.

4. To the widow or widower, if there be two children, sixty-two and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [twenty-two dollars and fifty cents] twenty seven dollars per week.

5. To the widow or widower, if there be three or more children, sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of wages, but not in excess of [twenty-five] thirty dollars per week.

6. If there be neither widow, widower, nor children, entitled to compensation, then to the father or mother, if dependent to any extent upon the employe at the time of his death, twenty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of [seven dollars and fifty cents] nine dollars per week: Provided, however, That in the case of a minor child who has been contributing to his parents, the dependency of said parents shall be presumed: And provided further, That if the father or mother was totally dependent upon the deceased employe at the time of his death, the compensation payable to such father or mother shall be forty-five per centum of wages, but not in excess of [thirteen dollars and seventy-five cents] sixteen dollars and fifty cents per week.

7. If there be neither widow, widower, children, nor dependent parent, entitled to compensation, then to the brothers and sisters, if actually dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of his death, fifteen per centum of wages for one brother or sister, and five per centum additional for each additional brother or sister, with a maximum of twenty-five per centum, such compensation to be paid to their guardian, or, if there be no guardian, to such other person as may be designated by the board, as hereinafter provided.

8. Whether or not there be dependents as aforesaid, the reasonable expense of burial, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, which shall be paid by the employer or insurer directly to the undertaker (without deduction of any amounts theretofore paid for compensation or for medical expenses).

Compensation shall be payable under this section to or on account of any child, brother, or sister, only if and while such child, brother, or sister is under the age of sixteen. No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widow, unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death, or was then actually dependent upon him and receiving from him a substantial portion of her support. No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower, unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for support. If members of decedent's household at the time of his death, the terms "child" and "children" shall include stepchildren, adopted children, and children to whom he stood in loco parentis and shall include posthumous children. Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or remarry, or should the widower become capable of self-support, the right of such dependent or widower to compensation under this section shall cease: Provided, however, That upon remarriage of any widow the compensation of such widow shall continue, as hereinbefore provided, for one-third of the period during which compensation then remains payable to her: Provided further, That if, upon investigation and hearing, it shall be ascertained that the widow or widower is living with a man or woman, as the case may be, in meretricious relationship and not married, or the widow living a life of prostitution, the board may order the termination of compensation payable to such widow or widower. If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall, for any cause, cease, the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased.

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed [thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents] forty-four dollars and fifty cents per week, nor less than [twenty-one dollars and twenty-five cents] twenty-five dollars and seventy-five cents per week.

This compensation shall be paid during three hundred weeks and, in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section, the compensation of each child shall continue after said period of three hundred weeks until such child reaches the age of sixteen, at the rate of seventeen and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [five dollars and seventy-five cents] seven dollars per week, if there is one child; twenty-seven and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [eight dollars and seventy-five cents] ten dollars and fifty cents per week, if there are two children; thirty-eight and one-half per centum of wages, but not in excess of [twelve dollars and fifty cents] fifteen dollars per week, if there are three children; fifty per centum of wages, but not in excess of [sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents] nineteen dollars and fifty cents per week, if there are four children; fifty-five per centum of wages, but not in excess of [seventeen dollars and fifty cents] twenty-one dollars per week, if there be five children; and sixty per centum of wages, but not in excess of [twenty dollars] twenty-four dollars per week, if there be six children or more.

The board may if the best interest of a child or children shall so require, at any time order and direct the compensation payable to a child or children, or to a widow or a widower on account of any child or children, to be paid to the guardian of such child or children, or, if there be no guardian, to such other person as the board, as hereinafter provided, may direct. If there be no guardian or committee of any minor, dependent or insane employe, or dependent, on whose account compensation is payable, the amount payable on account of such minor, dependent or insane employe, or dependent may be paid to any surviving parent, or to such other person as the board may order and direct, and the board may require any person, other than a guardian or committee, to whom it has directed compensation for a minor, dependent or insane employe, or dependent, to be paid, to render, as and when it shall so order, accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person, and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the moneys received by such person.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. DOWLING. For the benefit of the Members of the House—the hour is getting late—these amendments are the same amendments that were introduced to 1441. They have to do with increasing the benefits to surviving widows and dependent children. They are identical with those that were introduced and passed in reference to 1441.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The third and fourth sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. PITZER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, from that great county of Adams and after this long session today, I have had given to me from one of our packers, apple juice in quart bottles, which I have down in the House store room. If the Members will go down and see Mr. Erb, he will see that they have apple juice made from Adams County apples.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Maxwell, arise?

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, to interrogate the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Adams, Mr. Pitzer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PITZER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell us whether this apple juice is hard or soft.

Mr. PITZER. Mr. Speaker, yes.

MEMBER CONGRATULATED

The SPEAKER. The Chair notes with pleasure the presence of flowers in the House and congratulates on her birthday the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Coyle.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. GUARNIERI asked and obtained unanimous consent of the House to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I had wanted to address a few remarks to the House on the occasion of the recent birthday of Mrs. Coyle. After having though upon the remarks that I wish to address to the House, of course, my friend, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Toll, had a formal resolution prepared in honor of Mrs. Coyle. However, in spite of the resolution, I would still like to express my remarks to the House.

We should all reflect that the passing of time brings to all of us a greater maturity, experience and wisdom. Time serves to give us an ever deeper satisfaction of accomplishment and of things well done. It tests our friendship and it tests our loyalties. It marks our anniversaries and the days of our years. Our beloved and esteemed sister and representative, the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Josephine Coyle, celebrated an anniversary of her birth on July 23rd, 1951. That day surely was one of great happiness for her. On that day her many friends and well wishers again joined her in sharing her happiness and accomplishments.

She is the proud mother of five children. She gave the service of her three sons to the Armed Forces of the United States of World II. Despite her numerous duties as a mother and wife, she has sacrificed and given much of her personal life and leisure time in activities for the welfare of mothers and children and of the underprivileged people of her community.

She served with loyalty and distinction in the present session of our Legislature and she also served in the 1945 session of this House. Her personal grace and charm, her friendliness and loyalty, her humanity have all been demonstrated and are very well known to all of us.

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I and the Members of this House, I am certain, all join in extending to the lady from Philadelphia our most sincere congratulations to her on the anniversary, although belatedly, of her birthday and we wish to say: "Many Happy Returns to the Day to you, Jo."

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Coyle.

Mrs. COYLE. Mr. Speaker, I wish to thank the Honorable Marion Munley for her beautiful flowers; also Joe Scanlon for his very kind words congratulating me on my 39th birthday. Greater words were never spoken. Now I wish to thank all the Members for their kind wishes and congratulations, and also George Guarnieri for his very, very kind remarks.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL 545 FROM GOVERNOR

Mr. ROBERTSON offered a resolution which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, July 31, 1951.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), that House Bill No. 545, Printer's No. 612, entitled "An act to amend Subsection (f) of Section 302 of the act approved the fifth day of December one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897) entitled 'An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis requiring employers to keep records and make reports and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons providing procedure and administrative details for the determination payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer and prescribing penalties' by providing that employers' reserve accounts shall not be charged with compensation paid to certain employees," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs. MUNLEY, Mrs. VARALLO, Messrs. TOLL, GUARNIERI, DOUGHERTY and MULDOWNNEY offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, July 31, 1951.

Even to the lady members of the House the calendar periodically reveals the truth, the sad but absolute truth that another year has gone by.

Men for the most part accept this insidious onslaught of mounting years with better grace and resilience than their sisters—and are disposed to allude tauntingly to their sensitivity about age. However one member of the House—Mrs. Josephine C. Coyle—contradicts these rules of human conduct and mocks at the frailty of conventions.

Time in its flight has passed her with a gossamer touch. The radiance of her perennial smile is as fully bright as long ago—and the impact of the rushing years has left no trace of change in her lovely disposition and her charming attitude except to round out her wholesome viewpoint with overtones of mellowness.

As a wife and a mother she has the added joy and accomplishment of three boys and two girls to divert her time and attention from her faithful and effective legislative duties, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives happily embrace this opportunity to extend to Mrs. Coyle its heartiest birthday felicitations and to express its sincere wish that many more years of interesting and healthful activity lie before her during which she may render outstanding service to her community and constituents and enjoy the serenity and comfort of her domestic responsibilities, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Honorable Josephine C. Coyle of Philadelphia.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I realize the troubled mental condition that is prevailing in certain sections of the capitol but I did not know it had reached the rostrum where the Speaker resides.

I rose to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. LOVETT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am about to introduce a tax raising measure that I feel will do no harm to anyone in the state of Pennsylvania. The General Assembly finds itself somewhat in a stalemate. This very simple little tax could possibly be amended in Committee to apply for school purposes only, since I understand the big problem is finance for the schools.

In introducing this tax raising measure, which is an excess profit tax in Pennsylvania, I am given to understand that it would possibly in a two year period, using the same estimates and are used for some of the other financial figures in this General Assembly, yield $50 million. I feel that this may help in some way to get this General Assembly into action in order that we may find some suitable date to adjourn.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, the bill that we are about to pass is known as the Workmen's Compensation bill. We tried yesterday to amend a group of these bills, so that we would have some semblance of beneficial legislation in the interest of certain groups. We failed in most of the amendments.

I just want to say to the Members of the House, while I know that we are going to pass this legislation today,—I am going to vote for it, but we should not throw out our chests. We certainly are not doing what we should do so far as the disabled workmen are concerned in this particular bill.

The benefits derived are somewhat increased; there is not any question, but when we take into consideration the increase in the wages of the individuals in the different groups, we are almost as bad off today as we were at any time under workmen's compensation.

I have been interested in workmen's compensation ever since I came to Harrisburg. I have tried in every session of the Legislature since I have been here to put on the statute books in Pennsylvania legislation which I personally could feel would get to the core of this question, where we could really do something for the disabled workmen in Pennsylvania.

I might call to your attention that the average family of five people, mother and father and three children of school age, if that father became injured, they would still qualify for public assistance in Pennsylvania. Now to me that is a disgrace. I am one who is not going to leave here and pat myself on the back and say that I have increased or benefited the injured workmen in Pennsylvania.

My friends I just want to bring that to your attention. While there are some increases here, they certainly do not compare with the increases in the wages of the people in Pennsylvania.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, with respect to House Bills 1441 and 1442, I sincerely believe that Pennsylvania has now taken the lead in the United States in progressive workmen's compensation legislation.

Going back to the year 1915, the first Workmen's Compensation Act was passed with benefits of $10 a week on maximum compensation and $5 for minimum. We have gone a long way since. In 1938 the first occupational disease act was passed, we have certainly made rapid strides since that time with progressive legislation in the occupational disease field.

I believe that the record will reflect that Pennsylvania today is one of five states, and probably the largest industrial state of the five in the entire forty-eight, which provides compensation for total disability for as long as the total disability exists. This is certainly an innovation and a tremendous step forward for labor.

When Governor Fine campaigned he promised the very legislation that was voted upon yesterday. Yesterday I spoke with a number of men representing all of the segments of organized labor, the American Federation of Labor, the CIO, the United Mine Workers, all of these men were entirely satisfied with what they have today in the way of a Workmen's Compensation and Occupational Disease Act in the state of Pennsylvania.

The liberalization of the Act in providing for approximately 20 percent additional benefits and in some instances as much as 60 percent additional benefits over the prior Act, I think is a considerable step forward in this very humanitarian field of helping labor when they are injured in the course of their employment.

It is my firm belief that Governor Fine in his administration has offered to the laboring people of this Commonwealth two great compensation bills which will be voted upon within a few minutes in this House of Representatives, House Bills 1441 and 1442. These bills, I believe anyone who will fairly assess them will say that they are monumental in their efforts to give the working people of Pennsylvania a new deal in this vital field.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I had not anticipated that a measure that was probably going to receive the unanimous support of the Members of this House would produce so much impassioned oratory. However, I presume that this year like all years is a political year, at least it is a political year for some people.

It is interesting to note that Governor Fine campaigned for this kind of a bill. It is equally interesting to note that on this side of the House we have been campaigning for this kind of a bill for the last twelve years. It is very commendable that the people of the Commonwealth should be on the receiving end of this kind of a measure after such a long, long trek.

The bill does not put us in the lead of the procession among the industrial states. It is probably about five—No. 5. Of course, a great many agricultural states have benefits far exceeding the benefits carried in this bill.

To say that labor went on record as being satisfied—completely satisfied—with this measure is a bit absurd. The workers in Pennsylvania have to be content with the crumbs that fall from the table of plenty, and we are very glad indeed, that after all these years, the now dominant party can boast that at long last it has a Governor who campaigned for better legislation along these lines.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I have the highest admiration for the Minority Leader. I wish, however, for the record to say that during the time that the minority party passed an Occupational Disease Act, the Compensation amendment to the Workmen's Compensation Act, in 1938, they were able to come up with a pension plan of $30 a month, which was later stricken out by the courts of this Commonwealth.

We have the bills 1441 and 1442 payments of compensation at the rate of $30 a week for as long as total disability exists, which goes far beyond what the minority party act provided for back in 1938.

Mr. LOVETT. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DOWLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, do you think that a compensation act in which the benefits paid under that act to an injured workman with a family of five, would still be entitled to public assistance in Pennsylvania is good and a marvelous Workmen's Compensation Act?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, in order to answer the gentleman from Westmoreland, you would have to go into the entire field of workmen's compensation, what it was designed for—to protect men who many times are injured in the course of their employment through their own negligence—they would not be entitled to the payments of benefits. You would have to consider the entire broad field of workmen's compensation to arrive at an answer to the gentleman from Westmoreland's question. I firmly believe that the benefits which are now provided for in the Workmen's Compensation Act and the Occupational Disease Act are manifestly fair.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I know that all during the depression of 1929, 1932 we had people in Pennsylvania who were entitled to public assistance in Pennsylvania who never stooped to public assistance. They received aid, possibly from their relatives, possibly from the hearts of the people of Pennsylvania without going to public assistance. But this particular bill that we are now passing, in the case of an injured workmen would give him the right to go in and receive public assistance in Pennsylvania, under the law of public assistance in Pennsylvania.

I say to you that a Workmen's Compensation Act that does not pay benefits beyond that point where you ask those injured workmen or suggest to the injured workman that he has not enough to secure the necessities of life as the public assistance act sets it up in Pennsylvania, that that is not an exceptional act and should not be praised to the skies.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not on file.

The SPEAKER. The Chief Clerk will see to it that the gentleman is supplied with a copy of the bill. The Chair is informed that the bill is in print.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, if I may I would like to have the opportunity to just say another word or two in regard to this bill and the next bill dealing with unemployment compensation.

Following the remarks that I made on the previous bill, I say to you we have not progressed in legislation of this type in regard to the wages that have been paid to workmen in Pennsylvania and throughout the United States; and while I am going to support these two bills, I feel the same about them that we certainly should not pat ourselves on the back and say that we have here an exceptional bill in the interest of the people.

Mr. YESTER. Mr. Speaker, this bill is not on the desks and I do not think we should go any further with it until we get it.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, the Chair is informed that the bills are in print. If it is the desire of the House to postpone voting on the bills the Chair will submit the question to the House.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I checked about five or six files here of different members and the bills are not on file. This particular bill is not on file.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman, copies of the bill will be made available. The Chief Clerk has sent for them.

The Chair will submit the question to the House if the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, desires that action on the bills be postponed?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, under the rules of the House, we are not supposed to act on any bill unless every Member has a copy in his file and I do not think we should act on these bills until they are filed.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, there are no Rules of the House requiring that the bills be on the Members' desks. The requirements are that the bills be in print for the use of the Members. Does the gentleman insist on postponing action on the bill?

Mr. MORAN. No, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman. Does the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Yester, insist on postponement of action?

Mr. YESTER. Mr. Speaker, for the benefit of the Members it should be on the desk and I cannot see why you should pass a bill, or even put it to a vote when the bill is not here. I think we have been mighty careless in this session and I think it has gone too far. Is there any Member in this House who has the bill on his desk?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will direct the Chief Clerk to supply any Members requesting copies of the bills. The Chair advises the gentleman that the Rules of the House and provisions of the Constitution have been complied with. Does the gentleman desire to present a motion postponing action on the bills?

Mr. YESTER. No, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

Mr. PETROSKY. Are we on Bill 1442, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DOWLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I believe the gentleman from Dauphin in his discussion on House Bill No. 1441 covered also House Bill No. 1442. Is that correct?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, in a limited way, that is correct.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I understand he heralded 1441 and 1442 as being such great pieces of legislation being given to the working people in the state by the majority party. Is the gentleman aware of the position that this piece of legislation has in relationship to the other States in the nation in the coverage of occupational diseases?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, not in detail, but generally.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, what is its position generally then?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I would say that we are definitely in the first third among the States—that is my recollection—we are in the first third.

Mr. PETROSKY. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, I had additional amendments prepared at yesterday's session. One of the amendments concerned the coverage on occupational disease. The amendments were withdrawn because the majority side of the House, with the exception of some of the more courageous Members had gone along with the minority party in an attempt to win the amendments on these later measures, and lost their stand on practically every count. So, we withdrew those amendments. But for the information of the Members of the House and the gentleman from Dauphin I will say that there are only two States in the nation that are lower in the coverage of occupational disease than the state of Pennsylvania. By the same token, there are 39 States that tremendously surpass the position that the state of Pennsylvania takes in House Bill 1442 on coverage of occupational diseases.

Even though we are getting only a small crumb in House Bill 1442 and there is a small portion of benefit to the man afflicted with an occupational disease, I shall vote for the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?
